This Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) establishes policy and assigns responsibilities for guidance applicable to aircrew flight operations. It applies to all active duty and Air Reserve Component aircrew personnel, and commanders and supervisors of aircrew personnel. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of in accordance with the Air Force Records Disposition Schedule located within the Air Force Records Information Management System. Submit recommended changes to this publication to AF/A3TF using Air Force Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. This publication may not be supplemented.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document is revised to include organizational changes and should completely reviewed.

1. Policy.

1.1. To meet global interoperability requirements for the full range of aircraft operations, the Air Force will codify flying training, qualification, and operations policy and guidance in official Air Force publications.

1.2. Publications will adhere to current publications management guidance and delegate authorities at the lowest appropriate level.

2. Responsibilities.

2.1. The Deputy Chief of Staff, Operations (AF/A3).

2.1.1. Will provide oversight of aircrew operations, to include, but not limited to, training, standardization/evaluation, and general operations guidance and procedures.

2.1.2. Will assign responsibilities for implementing the policy in this Directive.

2.2. Major Commands, Field Operating Agencies, Direct Reporting Units, and Air Reserve Components.

2.2.1. Lead commands, as defined in AFPD 10-9, Lead Command Designation and Responsibilities for Weapons Systems, will author implementing guidance and procedures for specified weapons systems.
