Section A—ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

1. Overview. This section outlines Air Force Special Operations Command (AFSOC) supplemental guidance to the roles, responsibilities, and requirements of key personnel codified in the Special Operations Forces Personal Equipment Advanced Requirements (SPEAR) Overarching Business Rules, Processes, and Procedures. This instruction applies to all AFSOC components appointed with the accountability and management of United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM) SPEAR. A thorough review of the requirements in SPEAR Overarching Business Rules, Processes, and Procedures & USSOCOM Directive 700-26, is a prerequisite for this Air Force Special Operations Command Instruction (AFSOCI).

2. AFSOC/A4RM Materiel Management Office. AFSOC personnel assigned to the Command Equipment Management Office will ensure the following duties are accomplished:

2.1. Serve as AFSOC's SPEAR web application administrator IAW SPEAR Business Rules and USSOCOM Directive 700-26.

2.2. Complete inventory adjustments in SPEAR web application after receipt of signed Department of Defense (DD) Form 200, Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss, with assigned voucher/document number from the unit.

2.3. Provide a representative to the Integrated Process Team (IPT) conducted by Program Manager-Special Operations Forces Survival, Support & Equipment Systems (PM-SOF SSES).

2.4. Coordinate with units to move inventory within the SPEAR virtual warehouse to meet user needs.

2.5. Coordinate with United States Special Operations Command (USSOCOM)/J41 and components to complete lateral transfers of SPEAR within the SPEAR virtual warehouse.

2.6. Coordinate with USSOCOM and components to ensure units receive credit and/or replacements for SPEAR laterally transferred to another component.

2.7. Coordinate with the Inventory Control Point (ICP) for issue of SPEAR equipment to non-SPEAR eligible AFSOC Airmen conducting USSOCOM directed deployments where certain SPEAR assets are required per reporting instructions.

2.8. Publish internal SPEAR policies and procedures to supplement USSOCOM Directive 700-26 & USSOCOM SPEAR Overarching Business Rules and Processes.

2.9. Coordinate and/or schedule training for using unit Materiel Management personnel on SPEAR web application.

2.10. Review SPEAR procurement and sustainment plans drafted by AFSOC/A5/A8.

3. 720th Special Tactics Group (STG).

3.1. Issue and turn-in SPEAR equipment IAW SPEAR Business Rules and this AFSOCI.

3.2. Provide SPEAR estimated sustainment rates to AFSOC/A4RM & AFSOC/A5/A8 to be utilized in drafting the Program Objective Memorandum (POM).

4. AFSOC A5/A8 Plans and Requirement and Strategic Plans and Programs.

4.1. Review, validate, and advocate for the purchase of SPEAR for all Special Operations Forces (SOF) units.

4.2. Input all applicable POMs on behalf of the command.

Section B—.LIFE CYCLE MANAGEMENT

5. Overview. This section outlines AFSOC supplemental guidance and requirements to USSOCOM Directive 700-26 & SPEAR Overarching Business Rules, Processes, and Procedures, which serves as the primary reference source for the life cycle management requirements of SPEAR. These processes include receiving, inventory, disposal, and re-distribution of SPEAR.

6. Inbound Shipments. Unit SPEAR Administrators will process all inbound receipts within 7 calendar days. (T-2)

7. Receiving. Receiving procedures are outlined in SPEAR Business Rules, paragraph 9.., Section IX. SPEAR administrators will ensure fileable receiving documents are presented at the request of the Inspector General, HQ AFSOC, or independent audit agencies. (T-2)

8. Issue. Utilize Department of the Air Force (DAF) Form 1297, Temporary Issue Receipt, when SPEAR web application is not available for individual issue. Units will maintain the DAF Form 1297 until documented in the SPEAR web application. (T-2)

9. Care of Supplies in Storage (COSIS). For non-issued SPEAR, unit SPEAR Administrators will comply with basic COSIS program actions outlined in Air Force Joint Manual (AFJMAN) 23-210, Joint Service Manual (JSM) for Storage and Materials Handling, Section VI, 3-42.

10. User Profiles. Spear Administrators will update and maintain user profiles assigned in the SPEAR web application. (T-2)

10.1. To ensure system and inventory integrity, using units are required to validate current alpha rosters with SPEAR Clothing Records quarterly.

10.2. Validations will take place, quarterly, no later than the last duty day of the following months: March, June, September and December. (T-2)

10.3. Document validations utilizing the HQ AFSOC SPEAR Validation memorandum (Attachment 2). The memorandum will be completed and digitally signed by the using units Commander and submitted to AFSOC/A4RM (AFSOC.A4RM@us.af.mil). (T-2)

11. Inventory. Inventory for on-hand SPEAR must be accomplished annually. SPEAR web application is considered the system of record for all inventories. All adjustments will be accomplished by AFSOC/A4RM. (T-2)

11.1. The unit SPEAR Administrator will send a written annual inventory plan for non-issued SPEAR to AFSOC/A4RM (AFSOC.A4RM@us.af.mil) by 28 November. The plan will be signed by the unit commander. (T-2)

11.2. SPEAR Administrators will file inventory count sheets for presentation at the request of the Inspector General, HQ AFSOC, or independent audit agencies. (T-2)

12. Outbound Shipments. Return to Special Operations Forces Support Activity (SOFSA) shipments will be processed and shipped within 7 calendar days. (T-2)

12.1. Utilize Defense Logistics Agency–Disposition Services (DLADS) to dispose of all unserviceable SPEAR equipment except for SPEAR ballistics armor plates, soft armor inserts, and helmets. (T-2)

12.2. Return SPEAR ballistic armor plates, soft armor inserts, and helmets to SOFSA SPEAR Life Cycle Sustainment Manager (LCSM) in accordance with SPEAR Business Rules. (T-2)

12.3. Non-Destructive Inspection (NDI) of ballistic armor plates is mandatory every 24 months from the most recent inspection date whether in storage or issued to service members. Ballistic armor plate NDI is mandatory for deployment returns. (T-2)

13. Transfers. Approval authority for all lateral transfers between USSOCOM components and unit will be HQ AFSOC/A4RM or designated representative in the owning unit's chain of command.

14. Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss (FLIPL). Units will comply with the procedures and responsibilities outlined in DoD 7000.14-R, Vol. 12, Ch. 7, Financial Management Regulation, USSOCOM D 700-2, Special Operations-Peculiar/Major Force Program-11 Materiel Management, and USSOCOM Directive 700-24, Financial Liability and Relief of Accountability of U.S. Special Operations Command Property Loss, to resolve unaccounted for SPEAR equipment or discrepant accounts. (T-2) Units will provide completed DD Form 200, Financial Liability Investigation of Property Loss, to AFSOC/A4RM for inventory adjustments. (T-2)

15. Out Processing. The AFSOC units that utilize SPEAR must include SPEAR equipment on their units Virtual Military Personnel Flight (vMPF) out processing checklist. Every member must be validated when out processing the unit and all SPEAR equipment must be turned in. Checklists will not be signed off without items being turned in or completed DD Form 200. (T-2)
