This mission directive implements policy and guidance in AFPD 38-1, Manpower and Organization, and AFI 38-101, Manpower and Organization. It delineates the mission, command relationships, and responsibilities of the Airlift Tactics Flight. This MD applies to individuals assigned to HQ AFRC. It does not apply to Regular Air Force, Space Force, or ANG units. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained IAW AFI 33-322, Records Management and Information Governance Program, and disposed of IAW the Air Force Records Information Management System Records Disposition Schedule. Contact supporting records managers as required. Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the OPR using DAF 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route DAF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. This publication may not be supplemented.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This publication has been substantially revised to update the purpose, signature block and references.

1. Mission. Integrate citizen airmen personnel as subject matter experts to support the Advanced Airlift Tactics Training Center mission to increase the warfighting effectiveness and survivability of US and Allied Mobility and Intel Forces. Train personnel from all components of the Air Force, Marine Corps and allied nations that perform Tactics Analysis, Development, Test and Training to meet the emerging critical needs of the mobility community.

2. Command. Airlift Tactics Flight Commander:

2.1. Reports to the Commander of the Twenty-second Air Force.

2.2. Exercises administrative control over assigned personnel.

3. Responsibilities.

3.1. Execute commander's responsibilities as outlined in AFI 1-2, Commander's Responsibilities.

3.2. Provide administrative support and training oversight of the assigned personnel.
