This mission directive prescribes the mission, organization, and responsibilities of the 10th Air Base Wing, Headquarters United States Air Force Academy (USAFA), Colorado. United States Air Force Academy Mission Directive 1(USAFAMD 1) implements Air Force Policy Directive 38-6, Mission Directives. This mission directive does not apply to the Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC) or the Air National Guard (ANG). The organizational structure of HQ USAFA is in accordance with (IAW) Air Force Instruction (AFI) 38-101, Air Force Organization, and HQ USAF approved variances. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained IAW Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of IAW the Air Force Records Information Management System (AFRIMS) Records Disposition Schedule (RDS). Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) using the AF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. This publication may be supplemented at any level, but all Supplements must be routed to the OPR of this publication for coordination prior to certification and approval. The authorities to waive wing/unit level requirements in this publication are identified with a Tier ("T-0, T-1, T-2, T-3") number following the compliance statement. See AFI 33-360, Publications and Forms Management, for a description of the authorities associated with the Tier numbers. Submit requests for waivers through the Mission Element (ME) chain of command to the appropriate Tier waiver approval authority, or alternately, to the Publication OPR for non- tiered compliance items. The waiver authority for non-tiered requirements in this publication is the USAFA/CC.

Terms

Direct Reporting Unit (DRU)—A subdivision of the Air Force, directly subordinate to the Chief of Staff, US Air Force. A DRU performs a mission that does not fit into any of the MAJCOMs. A DRU has many of the same administrative and organizational responsibilities as a MAJCOM.

Mission Element (ME)—A named unit assigned to Headquarters United States Air Force Academy, subordinate to the Headquarters Staff level that performs a specialized mission and reports directly to the USAFA Superintendent. The HQ USAFA MEs are the Commandant of Cadets (CW), Dean of the Faculty (DF), Directorate of Athletics (AD), 10th Air Base Wing (10 ABW), and United States Air Force Academy Preparatory School (PL).

Supported Commander—In the context of a support command relationship, the commander who receives assistance from another commander's force or capabilities, and who is responsible for ensuring that the supporting commander understands the assistance required.

Supporting Commander—In the context of a support command relationship, the commander who aids, protects, complements, or sustains another commander's force, and who is responsible for providing the assistance required by the supported commander.

United States Air Force Academy Mission Directive (USAFAMD)—USAFAMDs are developed for directly assigned units below the Headquarters Staff level and above the squadron level. The USAFAMD provides general information about an organization's mission and directly communicates the unit's mission and responsibilities to the commander and unit personnel, and describes what an organization does, not how it does it. MDs are written at the executive level. Publications are issued in accordance with AFPD 38-6 and AFI 38-601.
