1. Purpose.

1.1. The 36th Wing Plans, Programs, and Readiness Directorate (36 WG/XP) provides the 36th Wing Commander (36 WG/CC) a strategic planning capability in the areas of joint basing policy, military buildup/development, operational plans (OPLANS), and large-scale exercises. To achieve this capability, the office uses three divisions along the following functional lines: Joint Basing (XPJ), Plans and Programs (XPP), and Readiness (XPR).

1.2. This instruction articulates the internal division of labor for 36 WG/XP as well as its relationships with other 36 WG organizations regarding plans, programs and readiness. In general, 36 WG/XP focuses on strategic-level policy and long-range planning, deferring detailed operational/tactical planning and execution to the responsible 36 WG units. 36 WG/XP will maintain the wing's Strategic Planning Calendar (SPC) and serve as the point of contact (POC) for external agencies to initiate coordination for major exercises and training events at Andersen AFB (AAFB) and surrounding areas, e.g., Andersen South and Northwest Field. Additionally, 36 WG/XP coordinates with internal and external organizations to deconflict and synchronize major exercises and training events at AAFB and surrounding areas. Lastly, 36 WG/XP will serve as the Commander's Action Group (CAG).

2. Objective.
