This instruction implements Department of the Air Force Policy Directive (DAFPD) 36-29, Military Standards. It provides responsibilities and standards for dress and personal appearance of all Department of the Air Force personnel and, consistent with Department of Defense Instruction (DoDI) 1300.17, Religious Liberty in the Military Services, 9.12.2.14.4.1. provides guidance for religious accommodation requests. This publication applies to Department of the Air Force civilian and contract employees and uniformed members of the United States Space Force (USSF), the Regular Air Force (RegAF), the Air Force Reserve (ResAF), and the Air National Guard (ANG) and retired and separated personnel. In collaboration with the Chief of Air Force Reserve (AF/RE), Director of the Air National Guard (NGB/CF), Deputy Chief of Space Operations for Human Capital (SF/S1), the Deputy Chief of Staff for Manpower, Personnel, and Services (AF/A1) develops personnel guidance for dress and personal appearance programs. This instruction applies to USSF members unless and until separate service guidance is published. In this event, USSF guidance shall prevail in application to the USSF. Note: All references to United States Air Force (USAF) terminology, units, grades, and positions will also apply to the equivalent in the USSF, as appropriate. For example, references to Airmen will also apply to Guardians. (Exception: Allowance Standard 016, documented amount and type of organizational clothing and equipment items authorized for an organization by applicable commander). This instruction requires the collection and or maintenance of information protected by the Privacy Act of 1974 authorized by Department of Defense Directive (DoDI) 5400.11, DoD Privacy and Civil Liberties Program. The applicable System of Record Notice (SORN) F036 AF PC C, Military Personnel Records System, is available at http://dpclo.defense.gov/Privacy/SORNs.aspx. Vigilance is required to protect Controlled Unclassified Information (CUI) when submitting or sending nominations, applications, or other documents to DoD agencies through government internet, software applications, systems, e-mail, postal, faxing or scanning. Ensure all records generated as a result of processes prescribed in this publication adhere to Air Force Instruction 33-322, Records Management and Information Governance Program, and are disposed in accordance with the Air Force Records Disposition Schedule, which is located in the Air Force Records Information Management System. Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the OPR using DAF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route DAF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. This publication may be supplemented at any level, but all supplements that directly implement this publication must be routed to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) for coordination, and all MAJCOM-level supplements must be approved by the Human Resource Management Strategic Board (HSB) prior to certification and approval. The authorities to waive wing/unit level requirements in this publication are identified with a tier (e.g., “T-0, T-1, T-2, T-3”) number following the compliance statement. See DAFMAN 90-161, Publishing Processes and Procedures, for a description of the authorities associated with the tier numbers. Submit requests for waivers through the chain of command to the appropriate tier waiver approval authority, or alternately, to AF/A1 or SF/S1 as appropriate for non-tiered compliance items. The use of the name or mark of any specific manufacturer, commercial product, commodity, or service in this publication does not imply endorsement by the Department of the Air Force. Failure to comply with the publication is punishable as a violation of Article 92 of the Uniform Code of Military Justice (UCMJ).

1.2.9. Authorized headgear will be worn while outdoors unless in an area designated as a "no hat" area by the Installation Commander. Headgear should also be worn indoors by armed Security Forces personnel or others bearing arms while performing duties. Note: All DAF Child and Youth Program facilities to include Child Development Centers, School Age Care facilities and Youth Development Center areas are designated as "no-hat, no-salute" areas. Reference AFI 34-1201, Protocol regarding customs and courtesies, when a salute is or is not required.

1.2.9.1. (Added) "No-hat, no-salute" areas include MDG areas as posted, dormitories as posted, ALS patio, or as directed by group level commander or equivalent.

5.1.7. T-Shirt. T-Shirt will be Coyote Brown (Tan 499) and tucked into OCP trousers. Additionally, when authorized by the unit commander, USAF members may wear colored T-shirts on Fridays with utility uniforms, provided the member is not deployed, participating in an exercise, or assigned to a joint or Space Force unit. The color must reflect the authorized heraldry and heritage colors of the member's assigned unit. Commanders may authorize members of supporting units to wear the same-colored T-shirts. For example, maintainers and flight surgeons may wear the same T-shirts as the flying unit they support. Group commanders will maintain a list of approved colors for wear within their group. Squadron commanders may approve display of organizational emblems, as officially and currently approved, not to exceed 5-inches in diameter, in cloth or silk screen on morale undershirts. If displayed, organizational emblems will be worn on the left side of chest of the Friday morale T-Shirt. The morale T-Shirt may also display the organizational emblem on the back of the undershirt in a larger diameter as authorized by commanders.

7.2.7. Watch Cap. Watch cap may be worn during 1 Oct – 31 March and cold weather conditions. When worn, the watch cap will be pulled down snugly on the head; the bottom edge (all) of the cap may be folded to allow proper fit, but not rolled. The back of the cap should run across the nape of the neck and the front of cap should not be touching eyebrows nor higher than center of forehead; hair will not protrude from front of cap. No bunching or sagging. It will be commercially designed, plain, solid black, or coyote brown knit or fleece/microfiber material. Do not wear rank insignia.

7.3.4.1. Wear and use of an earpiece, earbuds, headphones, or earphones and any Bluetooth® wireless technology, while in uniform, indoors or outdoors, is only authorized for official duties. Exception: Headphones and earphones are authorized during travel on public transportation (i.e., bus, train, or air travel) and/or while wearing the Physical Training Gear (PTG) during individual or personal PT. Use of a hands-free device is authorized while in uniform operating a motor vehicle. Use of personal electronic media devices, including earpieces, speaker phones or text messaging while walking in uniform is limited to emergencies or when official notifications are necessary. Military customs and courtesies take precedence.

8.1.7.1. Baseball/sport cap and/or sweatband with the Air Force symbol or U.S. Air Force printed/embroidered on the front are not authorized to be worn with USAF PT gear.

9.1.2. Functional clothing items such as parkas, protective footwear, and specialized winter flight clothing will be issued as required. The issuing unit commander will prescribe wear instructions.

10.1. Organizational Clothing and Equipment. Organizations issue items listed in Allowance Standard (AS) 016. The clothing remains the property of the organization. It meets unique functional or work requirements and includes both distinctive and functional clothing items. Members may sew reflective tape on organizational clothing and equipment or use Velcro® on jackets so they can remove it during contingencies. Functional clothing items such as parkas, protective footwear, specialized winter flight clothing will be issued as required. The issuing unit commander will prescribe wear instructions.
