1.2. Persons who are favorably identity proofed, vetted and meet levels of character and conduct consistent with unescorted authorization to access Travis Air Force Base (hereinafter referred to as Travis) will be issued a Defense Biometric Identification System (DBIDS) pass consistent with the time and location designated by the sponsor. NOTE: More specific details regarding installation access authorization and sponsorship may be found in DoDM-5200.08_Volume 3_AFMAN 31-101_Volume 3, Installation Perimeter Access Control, and 60th Air Mobility Wing (AMW) Plan 31-1v3, Installation Access and Firearms Registration.

1.3.4.1.2. To request an extension, submit a standard memorandum to the military member's squadron commander requesting a guest be authorized to reside in Travis Family Housing. If approved, submit the signed letter to the Travis Family Homes (Balfour Beatty Communities). The memorandum will be forwarded to the 60th Security Forces Squadron (SFS) for identity proofing and vetting and 60 MSG/CC for consideration, in turn.

1.3.5. Ensure family members and guests are aware of provisions of this instruction.

1.3.6. Accompany family members or guests if it becomes necessary to interview or charge the family members or visitors with the violation of any law.

1.3.7. Observe cautions placed in the base media. Instruct family members and guests so as to avoid hazards located on Travis.

1.5.2. Document complaints and incidents involving adults, juvenile family members, guests, or trespassers and forward such documentation to the TDAP.

1.5.3. Maintain sufficient and appropriate files in accordance with applicable issuances and law relative to this instruction, its administration, and enforcement.

2. Base Curfew.

2.1. During curfew hours, parents or sponsors will ensure their children or guests do not loiter, wander, stroll, or be upon in or about any street, alleyway, public area, or a carport or driveway other than the member's residence. Parks in the affected area listed are considered public areas.

2.2. For the purpose of this instruction, minors, juveniles and children are synonymous and are defined as unmarried military affiliated family members, visitors or guests under 18 years old. In no instance will a juvenile family member be considered a valid sponsor for a visitor.

2.3. The following curfew hours are established for children on Travis AFB:

2.3.1. Sunday through Thursday nights, between 2200 and 0600.

2.3.2. Friday and Saturday nights and evenings preceding an official school holiday, between 2300 and 0600, except as noted in paragraph 2.4 below.

2.4. Exceptions to the above policy are:

2.4.1. When a minor is accompanied by his or her parent, guardian, or other adult person having the care and custody of the minor, or when such minor is on an emergency errand directed by his or her parent, guardian, or other adult person having the care and custody of such minor.

2.4.2. When a minor is attending an approved function (i.e., function officially recognized by the installation commander or school officials) under adult supervision. The curfew will not be enforced until the event concludes.

2.4.3. Minors with jobs that extend past curfew hours will proceed by the most direct route between their place of employment and their sponsor's residence after they leave to or from work.

2.4.4. Minors who reside on Travis AFB and who enter the base after curfew hours will be allowed to proceed directly to their sponsor's residence.

3. Child Supervision. The minimum age for a child to be left alone is 10, provided child has appropriate level of self-care skills and maturity. Refer to Table A2.1; for more guidance.

3.1. Lack of supervision is a form of child neglect. Lack of supervision means there is a risk of injury or harm to the child because the parent(s) or caregiver are intentionally absent, are not paying close enough attention, or fail to arrange for sufficient supervision. Violation of these guidelines may constitute child neglect. Allegations of child neglect may be reported and result in Child Protective Services and Family Advocacy intervention.

3.2. Parents are ultimately responsible for the care and safety of their children. Since each child has different emotional, behavioral, mental and physical capabilities, every parent must exercise responsible judgment in supervising their children. Given these factors, a child should not be left without appropriate supervision, regardless of age, if the child is unable to demonstrate the maturity and self-management skills necessary to be unsupervised.

3.3. When considering whether to leave children at home alone, it should be considered how well the child:

3.3.1. Completes tasks.

3.3.2. Follows instructions.

3.3.3. Communicates problems to parents.

3.3.4. Uses good judgment.

3.3.5. Is not fearful of being home alone.

3.3.6. Knows how to report and respond to specific emergency situations, to include but not limited to: fire, poison, and injuries.

3.3.7. Understands personal safety including how to react to strangers.

3.4. Parents who feel their children are not ready to be left unsupervised must ensure they are left under the supervision of another responsible person and must fully examine the availability of appropriate adult help in the event of an emergency. Appropriate adult help is defined as an individual at least 18 years of age or a mature adolescent who has passed the required Red Cross babysitting training and who is capable of self-care and the care and supervision of children. A caregiver must be identified as the individual responsible for the child's well-being, guidance, and supervision during the period the child is in the person's care.

3.5. In all cases, children must have emergency telephone numbers to locate a parent or designated caregiver, and fully understand how to use emergency numbers such as 911. If leaving a child alone with an appropriate caregiver overnight, parents should provide a medical power of attorney to the caregiver to ensure that their child will have access to medical care if necessary.

3.6. Parents who feel their children are capable of being left unsupervised may petition 60 MSG/CC for a waiver given certain necessities (i.e. both parents working, family hardship, etc.).

4. Off-limit areas. The following areas are off-limits to juveniles:

4.1. Dormitory areas unless accompanied by the juvenile's parent or legal guardian. The dormitory area is defined as any immediate areas or structure where unmarried male or female personnel reside

4.2. The base gym, unless age 16 -17 or age 13 – 15 and accompanied by a qualified adult. A "qualified adult" is a parent, legal guardian, qualified family member program (FMP) staff member, qualified child and youth program personnel Fitness and Sports Center personnel conducting a program, or coach.

4.2.1. Guests are only allowed at the fitness center during manned hours of operation. Guests are not permitted during after-hours access at any time.

5. Other General Prohibitive Behaviors.

5.1. No person will carry or discharge firearms of any kind except in approved, authorized, safe locations enumerated in Travis issuances; explode any combustible device; use a slingshot, air gun, paint gun, or bow and arrow, except in places and at times authorized by the installation commander or the California Penal Code. Further, recreational operation of unmanned aircraft systems (drones, aerial toys, and remotely controlled aircraft vehicles) on Travis AFB is prohibited.

5.1.1. Generally prohibitive behaviors listed in paragraph 5.1 are not exhaustive. Prohibited behaviors are those behaviors which are contrary to good order, discipline, safety, and security and may or may not be memorialized in writing herein or other federal, state, or local issuances.

Sponsors may be financially liable for family member actions and/or could lose base housing privileges. Additional responsibilities include:

6.3.3.1. Screen all acts of misconduct by a military member, dependent, civilian, contractor, or juvenile and determine if a case should be brought before the TDAP committee. TRAVIS DISCIPLINARY ACTION PROGRAM (TDAP)

Table A3.1. Travis Disciplinary Action Program (TDAP).

A3.1. What is the PURPOSE of TDAP?

A3.1.1. TDAP is a program designed to reduce and deter future dependent, civilian, contractor and juvenile misconduct by administering constructive corrective action in order to provide safe and security living conditions for our military members and their families. When offenses occur, action is swift. Offenses can include: curfew violations, shoplifting, assault, mutual affray, illegal use/possession of BB guns, vandalism, property damage, substance abuse, underage drinking, drunk driving, reckless driving, domestic abuse, communicating a threat, and failure to control pets. The process generally involves the entire family and community.

A3.2. What is the TDAP PROCESS?

A3.2.1. Misconduct can result in an administrative hearing. This hearing is a formal military appointment held in the 60th Mission Support Group Conference Room. The military sponsor reports in full service dress uniform to the TDAP hearing officer. The Unit Commander or First Sergeant is also present. After the hearing is completed, the hearing officer determines the appropriate corrective action for the offender. The action is formally documented and kept as a permanent record while living or working on Travis AFB. SUBJECT: Notification of Travis Disciplinary Action Program Hearing – Dependent

1. Security Forces records indicate that your family member, John Doe, has committed a curfew violation and is suspected of using illegal narcotics. Misconduct of this nature is prejudicial to good order and discipline on Travis Air Force Base. As a sponsor, you are responsible for the actions of your dependents.

2. Under Travis Air Force Base Instruction 31-106, Travis Disciplinary Action Program, and as a result of your family member's actions, you are directed to appear at a Travis Disciplinary Action Program (TDAP) hearing. John Doe will accompany you. The presiding authority hears all cases referred to him in which a military dependent is alleged to have engaged in misconduct on Travis AFB. The presiding authority, after hearing all the evidence, will take appropriate command action. The hearing will provide you and your family member the opportunity to explain why base privileges should not be limited and/or revoked and why disciplinary action, to include debarment, should not be taken. The presiding authority may also recommend other action, to include community service, restitution, referrals to base agencies, or referral to local authorities.

3. You have been scheduled to appear before the TDAP committee with your family member, John Doe, on 1 July 2007, at 1400 hours in the 60 MSG Conference Room, Building 381. Spouses of juveniles are strongly encouraged to attend. You and/or your family member may make an oral statement to the TDAP committee. You and/or your family member may provide any other information you wish considered, in written form only. This is a closed hearing not open to the public. Per Travis Air Force Base Instruction 31-106, this is not intended to be an adversarial proceeding. There is no right to be represented by legal counsel at the hearing nor is there any right to call or cross examine witnesses. If you and your family member are unable to attend because of scheduling conflicts or other unavoidable commitments, you may request a delay by contacting the 60th Security Forces Squadron Reports and Analysis Section at (707) 424-1133. If access to the installation is required, you may request access by contacting Security Forces Plans and Programs at (707) 424-3537.

4. Failure to appear before a TDAP hearing or comply with the decision of the presiding authority may also result in your family member's case being forwarded to the local authorities for disposition. Failure to appear before the TDAP committee may result in the recommendation to 60 AMW/CC that your family member be barred from base for his/her misconduct.

5. A copy of Travis Air Force Base Instruction 31-106, which explains the TDAP, is provided as an attachment for you.
