60th Air Mobility Wing
Equal Opportunity (EO) Office

Do you have concerns of unlawful discrimination, harassment, or sexual harassment?

Active-duty military, their family members, retirees, and DoD civilian employees may address concerns through the EO office when they encounter unlawful discrimination based on race, color, religion, sex (sexual orientation/gender identity, pregnancy), national origin, bullying/hazing (Military Only), or sexual harassment. DoD Civilians may also address unlawful discrimination based on age (over 40), disability (mental/physical), genetic information and reprisal. If allegations involve sexual harassment, special actions and processing by commanders and directors apply. Call the EO Staff immediately for any questions.

Military Complaint Process (EO)

- Informal complaints, primarily use the chain of command to resolve alleged offenses. Options also include verbally addressing or preparing written correspondence to the offending party, intervention by a co-worker or supervisor, and using alternative dispute resolution techniques. There are no time constraints for filing an informal complaint through the EO office.
- Formal complaint must be filed within 60 days of alleged discrimination (waivered ONLY with Installation Commander's approval).
- Formal complaint process seeks resolution within 20 duty days for discrimination complaints and 14 duty days for sexual harassment.

Civilian Complaint Process (EEO)

- Complaint must be filed within 45 calendar days of alleged discrimination, or in case of personnel action, within 45 calendar days of becoming aware of personnel action.
- After complaint has been filed, the EO counselor has 30 days to conduct a fact finding/limited inquiry.
- Complainant has 15 calendar days to file a formal complaint.
- If accepted, investigation is concluded by the Investigation Resolution Division (IRD) within 180 days.
