Department of the Air Force

Applicant Rights & Responsibilities

- Recruiters are forbidden from engaging in any personal, intimate, or sexual relationships with prospective, applying, or training Air Force members. This includes dating, physical contact, and any communication suggesting such a relationship.

- Using position, rank or influence to pressure, threaten, or coerce a prospective/new Air Force member into a sexual relationship or exchange of favors is strictly prohibited.

- Personal social interactions with prospective/new Air Force members are prohibited.

- Lending, borrowing, or soliciting money/favors from prospective/new Air Force members is forbidden.

- Accepting personal goods from, providing/consuming alcohol with prospective/new Air Force members in an unofficial capacity is prohibited.

Department of the Air Force

You have the right and obligation to report all unprofessional relationships, improper and/or immoral behavior by any DoD member to the proper authorities without fear of reprisal.

If you feel these actions have occurred and have a report to file, do not hesitate to contact:

Air Force Recruiting Service Complaints and Inquiries:
afrs.hq.ig@us.af.mil

Air Force Recruiting Judge Advocate Hotline:
afrshqja@us.af.mil

Supersedes: AFRSVA36-101 4 February 2024
Prescribing Publication: AFI36-2909
Published: 24 July 2025