This instruction implements Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) 65-1, Management of Financial Services. It establishes a reasonable commuting distance as required by the Joint Travel Regulation (JTR). This instruction is applicable to all personnel assigned or attached to the 911 Airlift Wing. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Instruction (AFI) 33-322, Records Management and Information Governance Program, and disposed of in accordance with Air Force Records Information Management System (AFRIMS) Records Disposition Schedule (RDS) located at https://www.my.af.mil/afrims/afrims/afrims/rds/rds_series.cfm." Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) using Air Force (AF) Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional's chain of command.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been substantially revised and needs to be completely reviewed. Major changes include. Major changes include: Waivers to this regulation are no longer permitted in paragraph 2. Procedures.

1. Responsibilities . The unit commanders are responsible to ensure that all reserve orders, AF IMT 938, Request and Authorization for Active Duty Training/Active Duty Tour or computer generated orders are accurately annotated indicating whether the reservist is in a "corporate, commute or non-commute" status during a tour of active duty.

2. Procedures. Attachment 2 is a listing of all areas classified as being within a reasonable commuting distance of the 911 Airlift Wing. The reasonable commuting distance is listed by zipcode and location. If the location is not listed but the zip code is listed or vice versa, the area is classified as being within the reasonable commuting distance. Corporate Limits. The locations with the following zip code of 15108 are within the corporate limits of the 911 AW and orders should reflect this information.
