GUIDANCE FOR WARRANT OFFICERS (WO)

The return of the Warrant Officer Corps marks a significant shift in the Air Force's approach to talent management and technical readiness. By reinstating warrant officers, the Air Force recognizes the importance of specialized technical skills in modern warfare, particularly in areas such as communications, information technology, and cyberspace operations where there is a growing demand for expertise. Warrant officers will apply this expertise as they interface with external and internal stakeholders, empowering their teams to achieve mission execution. Warrant officers will not only undertake their own professional development, but they will also leverage their technical mastery as mentors and advisors to inspire the next generation of Airmen and ensure the United States retains the world's preeminent Air Force.

7.1.3. Reserve Tuition Assistance will be available to commissioned WOs in the selective reserve only if the officer agrees to remain a member of the ready reserve for a period of at least four years after the completion of the education or training for which Reserve Tuition Assistance was paid pursuant to 10 USC § 2007, note, Pub. L. 104–61, title VIII, § 8019, 1 December 1995, 109 Stat. 655.

AFR and ANG WOs will incur a 5-year reserve service commitment (RSC) from their WOTS graduation date. For AFR, selectees will incur an initial 5-year SelRes obligation from the date of appointment. Prior service applicants who have not completed their initial ADSC will serve their remaining ADSC concurrent with the 5-year obligation. Refer to Chapter 8 of this guidance memorandum for the ADSC or RSC requirement for Military Tuition Assistance.

Chapter 9: Separations.
9.1. Unless specifically cited for WOs only, references to officers in DAFI 36-3211, Military Separations, include both commissioned and WOs. Execution procedures for voluntary and involuntary separations, to include those with mandatory separation dates (MSD), will be handled in the same manner as the applicable DAF officer separation process.

9.1.4. WOs who have 20 years total active federal military service, or 20 years of satisfactory service for Reserve retirement, do not have to serve at least 10 years of active commissioned service to qualify for retirement as a WO.

Chapter 10: Service Retirements.

10.1. Unless noted below, references to officers in DAFI 36-3203, include both commissioned and WOs. Execution procedures for the length of service and mandatory retirements for WOs will be handled in the same manner as the DAF officer retirement process except as indicated.

10.1.2. If eligible, WOs who wish to voluntarily retire on a date earlier than the MSD, or the first day of the month following the MSD, must submit a request for retirement. WOs will apply for retirement using the online retirement application process in myFSS, or when authorized by AFPC, using the DAF Form 1160, Military Retirement Actions. ARC WOs will apply for retirement using the online retirement application process in myFSS, or when authorized by the Air Reserve Personnel Center, using the DAF Form 1160.

10.1.3. Unless entitled to a higher retired grade under some other provision of law, a WO retires, as determined by the Secretary concerned, in the permanent regular or reserve WO grade, if any, the member held on the day before the date of retirement, or in any higher WO grade in which the member served satisfactorily, as determined by the Secretary. Commanders must determine if an officer grade determination is required for retiring WOs using the same parameters outlined in DAFI 36-3203, paragraph 8.6, for commissioned officers.

10.1.4. WOs who held a higher commissioned grade will have a satisfactory service determination completed at the time of retirement to determine if advancement on the retired list is warranted as outlined in DAFI 36-3203, paragraph 8.5.

10.1.5. WOs may be retained up to four months beyond their MSD for medical evaluation under the Disability Evaluation System, hospitalization or medical observation, in accordance with 10 USC §§ 580, 1164, 1263 and 1305. Regular chief warrant officers who have twice failed selection for promotion may also be retained beyond their MSD for the purpose of court-martial.

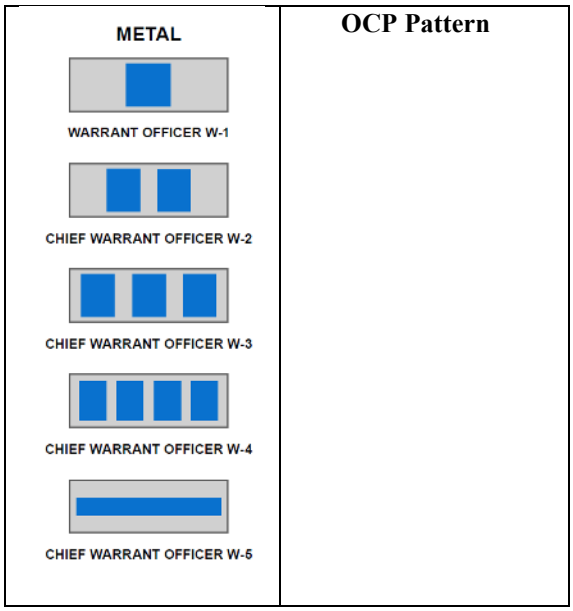

10.1.6. When promoted to the grade of CW3 through CW5, WOs in the RegAF incur a two-year ADSC that must be completed prior to retirement unless waived by the SecAF or designee. When promoted to the grade of CW3 through CW5, ARC WOs incur a two-year RSC that must be completed before becoming eligible to separate, transfer, or retire from SelRes. The SelRes includes drilling unit members (drill status guard or reserve/traditional guard or reserve), including military technicians (Title 32 or Title 5); those on Active Guard Reserve (AGR) duty (Title 10 or Title 32); individual mobilization augmentees (IMAs); and those in a training pipeline. All RSCs must be served in the SelRes unless waived. (T-2)

Members may request advance leave when they do not have enough accrued leave to use. All leave requests must be in accordance with DAFI 36-3003. LeaveWeb should be accessible to WOs at the time of graduation; leave may also be documented on the DAF Form 988, Leave Request/Authorization.
11.4. WO regular military compensation is regulated by OSD. The pay table can be accessed at: Defense Finance and Accounting Service > MilitaryMembers > payentitlements > Pay Tables > Basic Pay > WO (dfas.mil); the Reserve Component Drill Pay is located at: Defense Finance and Accounting Service > MilitaryMembers > payentitlements > Pay Tables (dfas.mil).
11.4.1. The BAH rates are found at: Basic Housing Allowance | BAH Rate Lookup | Defense Travel Management Office (dod.mil).
11.4.2. Prior enlisted WO trainees may be eligible for an initial special clothing allowance. If approved, the rates will be found at: Defense Finance and Accounting Service > MilitaryMembers > payentitlements > Pay Tables > CMA5 (dfas.mil).
11.4.3. An enlisted member who accepts an appointment as a warrant officer is entitled to saved pay in accordance with DoD FMR 7000.14-R, Volume 7A, Chapter 1, section 3.3.
Note: Special duty assignment pay (SDAP) and Foreign Language Proficiency Bonus (FLPB) pay are not eligible for saved pay unless the WO is assigned to a position, program, or AFSC that is eligible for SDAP or FLPB pursuant to their new assignment as a WO. DAFI 36-3012, Military Entitlements, Table 3.1, provides guidance on when to stop an Airman's SDAP.

11.4.4. Service members currently receiving a selective retention bonus who are selected for the WO program are granted an exception, and no recoupment of any unearned bonus will occur.
