Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to AF/A1SR using the DAF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route DAF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate functional chain of command. This DAFPD may not be supplemented.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been revised and should be completely reviewed. This revision updates organizational titles and references for accuracy. It removes identification (i.e., dog) tag information, which is realigned under DAFPD 36-38, Force Support Readiness. It also removes private organization information, which is realigned under Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) 34-1, Air Force Services. Lastly, it removes Air Force Memorialization Program information, which is realigned under DAFPD 36-28, Awards Program upon its revision.

1. Overview. The DAF offers Personal Affairs programs to assist Airmen, Guardians, their families, and retirees with personal challenges associated with military service. A range of programs address voting assistance, overseas marriages, fundraising for charitable organizations, and retiree activities. These programs promote personal and family resiliency, improve quality of life, and readiness.

2. Policy. DAF personnel shall be informed of the personal affairs programs available to them and their dependents. The appropriate support agencies will provide individual counseling on the personal affairs programs offered.

2.1. Each member of the DAF has a right and a responsibility, as a citizen, to vote. The DAF will provide voting information and the means to vote using absentee ballots to members of the DAF and their dependents, civilian Federal employees, and other qualified voters that have access to installation offices. Installation Military and Family Readiness Centers will provide necessary information and assistance to Airmen and Guardians at Regular Component DAF Installations. Air Reserve Components may use the Air Force Personnel Center Total Force Service Center as the primary source of voting information when required to provide voting assistance to activated members.

2.2. The DAF will counsel members stationed overseas on the restrictions of the United States immigration laws when marrying citizens of other countries. Also, the DAF will advise its members of the United States immigration requirements for alien spouses, fiancés, children, stepchildren, or adopted children.

2.3. DAF personnel will be given the opportunity and are encouraged to support federally-recognized charities and humanitarian organizations through the Combined Federal Campaign.

2.4. DAF personnel will be given the opportunity and are encouraged to support their fellow Airmen and Guardians through the Air Force Assistance Fund. The four affiliate charities are the Air Force Aid Society, Air Force Charitable Foundation, The LeMay Foundation, and The Air Force Enlisted Village. These charities help DAF members and their families in an emergency situation or with an educational need and aid surviving spouses of Airmen, Guardians, and retirees with financial and housing assistance. Commanders may endorse and provide logistical support to fundraising events that exclusively benefit the Air Force Assistance Fund and the four charities it represents.

2.5. All DAF members and organizations, which includes both unit-affiliated unofficial activities/social funds and installation-recognized private organizations, must comply with proper guidelines when organizing and participating in fundraising activities. Installation Commanders and his/her delegates, under legal advisement, are the approval authority for all fundraising on DAF installations.

2.6. The DAF will ensure retirees have the opportunity to maintain contact with, and assist, their fellow retirees, retirees' families, and members of the Air Force and Space Force and will keep members of the retiree community informed on their entitlements and key issues affecting them.

3. Roles and Responsibilities.

3.1. The Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR) provides policy oversight and program advocacy.

3.2. Deputy Chief of Staff of the Air Force Manpower, Personnel, and Services (AF/A1) and the Deputy Chief of Space Operations for Human Capital (SF/S1). In accordance with authority in Headquarters Air Force (HAF) Mission Directive 1-32, Deputy Chief of Staff of the Air Force Manpower, Personnel, and Services, the AF/A1 and SF/S1 will ensure implementation of the policy in paragraph 2.
