This publication implements the Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 31-115 Volume 1, Department of the Air Force Corrections System and establishes procedures for the security and supervision of inmates, admitting and releasing inmates, escorting, controlling, and returning inmates taken from Camp Lejeune Marine Brigade, Naval Air Station (NAS) Norfolk, or other regional correction facilities for appointments, inmate escape and movement of inmates. It applies to all units/personnel assigned to Seymour Johnson Air Force Base (SJAFB), whether in tenant/reserve/guard or active duty status. Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) using the Department of Air Force (DAF) Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route DAF Forms 847 through appropriate chain of command. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Instruction 33-322, Records Management and Information Governance Program, and disposed of in accordance with Air Force Records Information Management System Records Disposition Schedule.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been substantially revised and must be reviewed in its entirety.

1. Responsibilities

1.1. Compliance:

1.1.1. It is the responsibility of all personnel assigned to the 4th Fighter Wing to comply with this instruction. This publication applies to the U.S. Air Force Reserve, Air National Guard, and Civil Air Patrol when such personnel are assigned to the 4th Fighter Wing. Each person who assumes control of an inmate will be familiar with this instruction and the portion of DAFMAN 31-115 Volume 1 that pertains to the admission/release, security and treatment of inmates.

1.2. Confinement Locations:

1.2.1. Seymour Johnson Air Force Base (AFB) does not have a certified detention area on the installation.

1.2.2. Pretrial detainees and adjudged inmates with sentences up to one year are to be sent to Marine Corps Installations East (MCIEAST) Regional Brig located at Camp Lejeune, North Carolina (NC) in accordance with (IAW) approved Memorandum of Understanding.

1.2.3. For inmates with longer than one year sentences they will be sent to MCIEAST Regional Brig while awaiting transfer.

1.3. Operation and Maintenance Fund (O&M):

1.3.1. The inmate's unit of assignment is responsible to allocate O&M funds to offset costs for inmates as well as cover the cost of civilian facilities. See Attachment 2 for payment procedures.

2. Procedures

2.1. In-processing Inmates

2.1.1. New inmates will be processed into a military/civilian correctional facility IAW Attachment 3 of this instruction.

2.2. Conduct of Escort Personnel

2.2.1. Render all military courtesies; however, do not render courtesies at the expense of inmate control/security.

2.2.2. Casual (personalized) conversation with inmate(s) is forbidden. All conversations with inmate(s) will be in the line of duty and conducted in a military manner.

2.2.3. Escorts will not joke or exchange greetings with the inmate(s), neither will they curse or use abusive language towards the inmate(s). Do not touch inmates except to conduct a search, render first aid, to prevent an escape, or subdue violent or combative inmates for their own self-protection or protection of others. Physical contact with other inmates or duty personnel is prohibited, and includes fighting, wrestling or "horseplay." Notify the corrections facility staff and Confinement Non-Commission Officer (NCO) in any of the above cases or incidents.

2.2.4. Escorts will not sell, buy, or exchange any articles for inmates, nor to anyone on behalf of an inmate. Escorts will not accept any inducement from an inmate or any other person acting on behalf of an inmate.

2.3. Conduct of Inmates:

2.3.1. Mandatory Standards. All inmates will comply with the confining facility's regulations. Any attempt to circumvent regulations will be documented as a breach of discipline. All inmates will do as they are instructed when instructed. Any complaint from inmates will be brought to the attention of the confining facility's staff. If the inmate is confined at a Department of Defense (DOD) facility, complaints will be addressed to the confining facility's staff via Defense Department (DD) Form 510*, Prisoner Request*. If confined at Sampson County Detention Center, complaints will be addressed IAW the confining facility's procedures.

2.3.2. Military Courtesy and Appearance. All rules of military courtesy apply. Inmates whose sentence includes a punitive discharge and said discharge has been ordered executed, will not salute. All other inmates are required to salute. All duty personnel will be addressed and treated in a courteous and respectful manner. Military personnel will be referred to by their rank. Civilians will be referred to as Mr., Mrs., Ms., or Miss as the case may be. Inmates will be referred to as "INMATE" and their last name. When an officer or senior NCO approaches an inmate inside of a building, the inmate is to come to the position of attention until the officer or senior NCO passes or tells the inmate to carry on.

2.4. Escort Requirements:

2.4.1. All individuals assigned escort duties must undergo Escort/Chaser Training either through the Confinement NCO or other certified military corrections facility at least one week prior to inmate sentencing. Non Security Forces escorts must be in the grade of E-5 or higher. The detention facility "escort to inmate" ratio is determined by the confinement facility and must be adhered to at all times by units escorting inmates outside of a detention facility. Squadron commanders should ensure that an appropriate number of members in their units receive Escort/Chaser Training on a regular basis.

2.4.2. If an inmate must be taken anywhere within the confines of Seymour Johnson AFB, the minimum number of escorts will be two personnel. An inmate's custody grade will be determined by the Confinement NCO/officer, based on the inmate's disciplinary history and interaction with escorts at the time of sentencing. At a minimum, the inmate will be transported to any appointments and to the assigned Confinement Facility in the provided restraint system. The Confinement NCO will determine if the application of additional physical restraint devices (leg shackles) are required after the initial inmate interview is completed.

2.4.3. SureLock Restraint Systems are maintained by the Confinement NCO and must be checked out before any movements.

2.5. Escort Responsibilities.

2.5.1. Inmates, once signed out, must remain in the custody of the escort that signed for them. Switching escort personnel for convenience is not permitted.

2.5.2. Profane and obscene language, gestures, and writings towards an inmate are prohibited.

2.5.3. Disorder of any kind is prohibited.

2.5.4. Do not allow inmates to socialize amongst one another.

2.5.5. The escort is solely responsible for the welfare, safety, and security of the inmate at all times while under their supervision.

2.5.6. Do not allow inmates to use the telephone except in the performance of official duties.

2.5.7. Inmates are prohibited from entering facilities that sell, allow consumption of, or store alcoholic beverages.

2.5.8. Do not release information pertaining to the inmate other than to corrections facility staff.

2.6. Confinement of Inmates:

2.6.1. The following procedures will be adhered to at all times when confining or releasing inmates. The Confinement NCO will process all inmates for initial confinement and transfers to confining facilities. The inmate's First Sergeant or designated escorts will stay with the inmate during the Confinement NCO's prescreening interview.

2.6.2. The inmate's escort or First Sergeant is responsible for escorting the inmate to the medical facility for medical clearance and to the confinement facility for processing.

2.7. Finance:

2.7.1. Any money that an inmate has in his/her possession will be surrendered, accounted for, and maintained by the escorts. Upon arrival of the confinement facility, the escorts will deliver the inmate's funds and valuables to the confinement facility staff for processing and documentation on Brig Form 1601*, Inmate In Processing*, or IAW appropriate civilian facility forms.

2.8. Transportation:

2.8.1. All escorts will transport inmates in a government vehicle or government-rented vehicles.

2.8.2. At no time will inmates operate any motor vehicle or travel in the front passenger seat.

2.9. Victim and Witness Assistance Program (VWAP):

2.9.1. The Confinement NCO will review the notification of enrollment under VWAP via DD Form 2704, Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Prisoner Status to ensure all portions of the DD Form 2704 are completed.

2.9.2. The Staff Judge Advocate will provide the completed DD Form 2704 to the Confinement NCO. The Confinement NCO will place the DD Form 2704 in a sealed envelope which will be maintained by the escorts.

2.9.3. The confidentiality of the victim/witness will be maintained.

2.9.4. Prisoner Release. The confining facility will notify victims and witnesses when a prisoner is scheduled for release Not To Exceed (NTE) 45 days utilizing the DD Form 2705, Notification to Victim/Witness of Prisoner Status. Notifications may be made by telephone when the prisoner is unexpectedly released or when required by short-notice time frames.

2.9.5. Escape. The confining facility will notify victims and witnesses by telephone as soon as possible after discovery of an escape by an adjudged prisoner. Victims and witnesses will be re-notified by telephone upon the prisoner's return to confinement.

2.9.6. Transfer. The confining facility will notify victims and witnesses of transfer to another facility. Notifications may be made prior to transfer or immediately thereafter. The commander of the receiving facility notifies victims and witnesses of the prisoner's new location and enrollment in the facility's victim and witness notification program within 14 days of prisoner arrival.

2.9.7. If transferred to the United States Disciplinary Barracks (USDB), forward the DD Form 2704 information separately to the Command Judge Advocate, Attn: Victim/Witness Coordinator, USDB, Fort Leavenworth, Kansas 66027.

2.9.8. Emergency Leave. The confining facility will notify victims and witnesses before the prisoner's release on emergency leave; this should normally be done by telephone.

2.9.9. Death. The confining facility will notify victims and witnesses as early as possible (NTE 72 hours) of the death of a prisoner.

3. Emergency Action Plan

3.1. General:

3.1.1. During any incident/emergency, the escorts will stay with the inmate at all times. The inmate will be returned to the corrections facility as soon as possible after the incident. Immediately notify the Emergency Communications Center (ECC) if an inmate has been injured or involved in an accident. Notify the Confinement NCO as soon as possible of the incident.

3.2. Escape:

3.2.1. If an inmate escapes while being escorted, the escorts will immediately notify ECC at 722-1212/1213 and the Confinement NCO at 722-2548 if on SJAFB. If off the installation, contact local law enforcement by dialing 911 and then contact ECC and Confinement NCO.

3.2.2. The following information will be furnished: Location from which the inmate escaped, inmate's name, direction the inmate fled, description of the inmate's clothing and events leading up to the escape. If possible, the escort will pursue the inmate and use the appropriate level of force necessary to stop the inmate. The escort will not leave other inmates also in their custody to pursue an escaped inmate unless custody is transferred to a qualified individual.

3.2.3. The following personnel will be notified by the confinement NCO:

3.2.3.1. ECC

3.2.3.2. Flight Chief

3.2.3.3. On-duty Armorer

3.2.3.4. SF Operations Superintendent/Officer

3.2.3.5. Defense Force Commander (DFC)

3.2.3.6. Inmate's First Sergeant/Commander

3.2.3.7. Installation on-call judge advocate (919-750-1203)

3.2.4. The Confinement NCO will initiate a DD Form 553, Deserter/Absentee Wanted by the Armed Forces. The unit's First Sergeant will collect, inventory, and store the inmate's personal property and extra items in the Sampson County Jail or regional facility if appropriate.

3.2.5. Prevention. Positive control of inmates is mandatory at all times. You will not place yourself in a position where lack of control allows a deficiency in security. Aggressive accountability is required at all times.

4. Clothing Requirements

4.1. General:

4.1.1. The parent unit is responsible to ensure personnel awaiting Court Martial proceedings are in possession of the items:

4.1.1.1. Sampson County Detention Center (SCDC). All persons being confined at SCDC will wear the detention center required/issued clothing, however all members will arrive at SCDC with the following items:

4.1.1.5. If the inmate is missing any items then the parent unit is required to provide those items at the unit's expense.

4.2. Disposition of Personal Property:

4.2.1. Upon arrival at the detention facility, all personal property, including valuables, money, and clothing will be inventoried and accounted for IAW facility procedures. All items not authorized by the facility will be returned to the parent unit by the escorts.

5. Armed Transfer Teams

5.1. Requirements

5.1.1. The DFC is responsible for ensuring installation confinee transfer capability exists.

5.1.2. Armed confinee transfers are to be performed by SF personnel who have specialized training and familiarization with escort duty.

5.1.3. Armed Transfer Team (ATT) personnel train/qualify with the concealed holster and must demonstrate to the DFC a high degree of professionalism, maturity and emotional stability.

5.2. Training

5.2.1. All ATT members must complete Transportation Security Administration (TSA) Law Enforcement Officers Flying Armed (LEOFA) training and meet arming requirements; complete AF concealed carry training, and qualify on the handgun Air Force Qualification Course IAW AFMAN 36-2655, Small Arms and Light Weapons Qualification Programs. ATT members are authorized to be armed in the performance of their duties IAW Department of Defense Instruction 5525.14, Defense Law Enforcement Officers (LEO) Flying Armed, DoD 5210.56, AFI 31-117 Arming and Use of Force by Air Force Personnel, and DAFMAN 31-115 Vol 1.

5.2.2. Air Force Security Forces Center (AFSFC) is the AF Security Forces point of contact for armed escort training and is responsible for providing training access for ATT personnel. ATT members must be thoroughly trained prior to assignment and comply with applicable provisions of DAFMAN 31-115 (specifically, staff qualifications, training, and transfer) and Title 49 Code of Federal Regulations, Sections 1540.11, Carriage of Weapons, Explosives, and Incendiaries by Individuals, 1544.219, Carriage of Accessible Weapons and 1544.221, Carriage of Prisoners Under the Control of Armed Law Enforcement Officers. In addition, qualified Armed Transfer Agents (ATA) may be used to transport low risk confinees when the airline increases the TSA standard to require armed escorts for low risk confinees.

5.2.3. Practical training consists of use of force scenarios, transfer procedures, and mission planning. For Use of Force scenario-based practical training, use non-firing small arms facsimiles (e.g. rubber guns) or approved Close Combat Mission Capability Kits (CCMCK) following the guidance in Head Quarters AFSFC CCMCK Training Concept of Operations and AF Technical Order 11W2-9-4-11, Technical Manual Operator's Manual for CCMCK. Document completed training electronically within the Training Business Area using a journal entry.

5.2.4. Airmen become ATT members after satisfactorily completing a confinement Duty Position Evaluation by the Standardization Evaluation Section, weapons qualifications, and Department of Homeland Security/TSA requirements. ATT members must have properly demonstrated: escort procedures; safety and proper use of restraining devices; and current certifications in Self-Aid/Buddy Care, Adult Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation and Automated External Defibrillator. For additional information, refer to DAFMAN 31-115.

5.3. Credentials.

5.3.1. The DFC issues the AF Form 688C, Armed Transfer Agent.

5.3.2. All credentials issued to ATT members will be maintained within the Confinement section when not performing escort duties.

5.3.3. The DFC ensures ATT members carry/utilize the AF Form 688C only while in the performance of their official duties. Credentials are valid only as long as the holder is performing ATT duties within the issuing unit. The credential expiration date should generally not exceed three (3) years from date of issue.

5.3.4. The Confinement NCO will destroy withdrawn credentials upon a person's change in status, such as Permanent Change of Station or reassignment to a different duty section. Document credential destruction on AF Form 310, Document Receipt and Destruction Certificate, and maintain the certificate with other AF Form 688C accountability records.

A3.8.5. Ensure DD Form 2708, Receipt for Inmate or Detained Person, is completed upon turning the inmate over to the confining facility.

A3.8.6. Ensure the most updated version (August 2018) of SF600, Chronological Record of Medical Care, is completed.

A3.9. Obtain a copy of DD Form 2704, Victim/Witness Certification and Election Concerning Prisoner Status, in a sealed envelope from the installation Staff Judge Advocate and provide to confinement NCO.

A3.10. Obtain copies of signed the signed charge sheet and plea agreements, if any, from the installation Staff Judge Advocate and provide to confinement NCO.

Attachment 4

USE OF FORCE

A4.1. Anyone responsible for the safety and security of inmates should know the circumstances permitting use of force, including deadly force. If physical force becomes necessary, you should only use the minimum force necessary to restore order. Examples of minimum force include:

A4.1.1. Unarmed Restraint Techniques: Unarmed restraining techniques are effective for self-defense, to prevent escape, to prevent injury to persons or damage to property, or to quell a disturbance. To control or move an unruly person, you should get help from other Security Forces personnel to preclude the need to strike or inflict bodily injury on the inmate.

A4.1.2. Firearms: Only Security Forces escorts will carry firearms when transporting maximum custody inmates. For the safety of escorts and inmates, the following rules apply:

A4.2. Security Forces escorts of maximum custody inmates will be armed with their duty handgun/pistol.

A4.3. Hospitalized maximum custody inmates should be in a secure ward when available. When secure wards are not available, escorts will carry handguns.

A4.4. In all instances of firearms use, the intent is to disable the inmates not to kill them. Exhaust all other means of preventing an escape before using firearms, to include verbal orders.

A4.5. Firing on an inmate to prevent escape is justifiable only as a last resort and only IAW AFI 31-117.
