SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This rewrite addresses inherently governmental functions as well as other processes outlined in the parent instruction.

1.1. Overview. This supplement establishes guidance and procedures for publications and forms management specific to AU, the 42 ABW, and the Holm Center. Tenant organizations must comply with guidance and procedures as established by their parent organization.

1.4.3. Official Holm Center, Air Force Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFROTC), Air Force Junior Reserve Officer Training Corps (AFJROTC), and Officer Training School (OTS) publications and forms are posted on the Maxwell Publications and Forms Management Office AF Portal page. Due to their unique circumstances, Holm Center/JR (Air Force Junior ROTC) may maintain separate repositories for their publications and forms; these products must match the versions posted on the Maxwell Publications and Form Management Office AF Portal page. Remaining units and centers post their publications and forms on locations accessible by appropriate personnel.

1.9. Inherently Governmental Functions. Commanders/Directors will appoint in writing a DAF military or civilian employee to make decisions pertaining to inherently governmental functions performed by contractors.

2.7.1.2. Tenant organizations will use their higher headquarters PFM.

2.7.2.2. See paragraph 1.9.

2.7.4. The appointed contractor PFM will conduct reviews of draft AU- and base-level publications and forms and provide recommendations to the 42 CS Contracting Officer Representative who will provide the appropriate coordination. The appointed Base Freedom of Information Act/Privacy (FOIA/PA) Manager and Base Records Manager will provide coordination for AU- and base-level publications and forms. All other units will obtain CIO coordination from their assigned Records Management/FOIA/PA monitors.

2.8.2. AOs will provide a comment resolution matrix for coordinators to document comments. (see DAFMAN 90-161 for additional information on the comment resolution matrix). Contact the Maxwell Publications and Forms Management Office for a blank comment resolution matrix.
