This publication implements Air Force Instruction (AFI) 36-2903. It provides guidance and procedures on alternate uniform wear on Joint Base Charleston. It applies to all Joint Base Charleston Air Force members, including the Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard (ANG), except where noted otherwise. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of in accordance with Air Force Records Information Management System (AFRIMS) Records Disposition Schedule (RDS). Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) listed above using the AF Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Forms 847 from the field through the appropriate chain of command. This publication may be supplemented at any level, but all supplements must be routed to the OPR listed above for coordination prior to certification and approval. The authorities to waive wing/unit level requirements in this publication are identified with a Tier ("T-0, T-1, T-2, T-3") number following the compliance statement. See AFI 33-360, Publications and Forms Management, Table 1.1. for a description of the authorities associated with the Tier numbers. Submit requests for waivers through the chain of command to the appropriate Tier waiver approval authority, or alternately, to the publication OPR for non-tiered compliance items.

2.8.12. The Commander of Joint Base Charleston, is responsible for enforcing wear and ensuring this supplement is current.

5.2. (JB CHARLESTON) Operational Camouflage Pattern Uniform (OCPU):

5.2.1. (JB CHARLESTON) Operational Camouflage Pattern Uniform (OCPU): EOD personnel are authorized wear of the OCPU when performing the following functions:

5.2.1.1. (JB CHARLESTON) Personnel assigned to standby teams.

5.2.1.2. (JB CHARLESTON) Personnel participating in training operations that involve live explosives.

5.2.1.3. (JB CHARLESTON) Personnel conducting range clearance operations on active bombing ranges.

5.2.1.4. (JB CHARLESTON) Personnel responding to an emergency involving explosives (likely to be covered by standby teams).

8.4.5.1. (JB CHARLESTON) Morale nametags may be worn of Fridays and during special events. Squadron Commanders will approve and maintain a list of acceptable morale nametags, and will ensure they are in good taste and reflect proper military order, discipline, morale and image.

8.7.2. (JB CHARLESTON) AF approved "no melt, no drip" undergarments are required to be worn while conducting EOD operations. OCPU sleeves will be worn in the down position at all times; cuffing of the sleeves is not permitted. Name tape, Air Force tape, rank insignia, subdued American Flag and subdued EOD patches are the only authorized patches approved for wear. The OCPU patrol cap is the only authorized head gear (exception: boonie hat may be worn on training ranges/active range clearances).

8.7.3. (JB CHARLESTON) Security Forces (SF) personnel are authorized wear of the OCPU only when posted as a sentry or patrol requiring the wear of the SF Plate Carrier under the following conditions:

8.7.3.1. (JB CHARLESTON) Level 2: Soft plates only.

8.7.3.2. (JB CHARLESTON) Level 4: Level 4 plates inserted.

8.7.3.3. (JB CHARLESTON) Members may dress in the OCPU immediately prior to arming and assuming guard mount formation or early post and will be replaced with the Airman Battle Uniform (ABU) blouse immediately following dis-arming operations prior to departing the armory. At no time will members be authorized to wear the OCPU unless on duty, armed and wearing the SF Plate Carrier.

9.9.5. Laboratory coats will only be worn in direct support of patient care inside medical treatment facilities and are not authorized for outside wear. When wearing a laboratory coat, the appropriate scrub top or uniform shirt/blouse must be worn underneath. When the ABU top is removed due to warm temperatures, the white laboratory coat must be worn in its place. The coat must be buttoned closed to cover the undershirt beneath the coat. The hospital security badge will be worn and displayed in full view at all times. Personal laboratory coats may be embroidered with appropriate identifying information (Name, Rank, Specialty). Adhesive tape name tags are not authorized.
