This Air Force Instruction (AFI) implements Air Force Policy Directive (AFPD) 36-28, Awards and Decorations Programs, and describes special trophies and awards programs sponsored by the United States Air Force (USAF) and by private organizations that seek Air Force participation. It applies to all active duty Air Force, Air Force Reserve Command (AFRC), and Air National Guard (ANG) members and civilian employees paid through appropriated funds. It outlines how to nominate deserving individuals or units for these awards. This publication may be supplemented at any level, but all direct Supplements must be routed to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) of this publication for coordination prior to certification and approval. Requests for waivers will not be considered. This instruction requires collecting and maintaining information protected by the Privacy Act of 1974, System of Records Notice F036 AF PC V, Awards and Decorations, applies.

Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the OPR using the Air Force (AF) Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Form 847s from the field through AFPC/DPSIDR, Air Force Recognition Programs Section, 550 C Street West, Suite 12, Randolph AFB TX 78150-4712 or afpc.dpdxi.pubfmmgt@randolph.af.mil.

Ensure all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363, Management of Records, and disposed of in accordance with (IAW) the Air Force Records Information Management System Records Disposition Schedule (RDS) located at https://www.my.af.mil/afrims/afrims/afrims/rims.cfm.

Any organization may supplement this publication which must be approved and reviewed by the OPR. Major Commands (MAJCOMs), Field Operating Agencies (FOAs), and Direct Reporting Units (DRUs) must send one copy of their published and or posted supplement to the OPR at AFPC/DPSIDR, 550 C Street West, Suite 12, Randolph AFB TX 78150-4712. Other organizations send one copy of each published and or posted supplement to the next higher headquarters.

(AFSPC) This publication implements Air Force Instruction (AFI) 36-2805, Special Trophies and Awards. It lists and describes procedures for Command-level processed special trophies and awards. Special trophies and awards that are forwarded up to Air Force-level are not included. This publication applies to Air Force Space Command (AFSPC) Units, to include Air Force Reserve and Air National Guard. Ensure that all records created as a result of processes prescribed in this publication are maintained in accordance with (IAW) Air Force Manual (AFMAN) 33-363 and disposed of IAW Air Force Records Information Management System (AFRIMS) Records Disposition Schedule (RDS). Refer recommended changes and questions about this publication to the Office of Primary Responsibility (OPR) using Air Force Form 847, Recommendation for Change of Publication; route AF Form 847s from the field through the appropriate functional's chain of command. This publication may not be supplemented or further implemented/extended. The authorities to waive wing/unit level requirements in this publication are identified with a Tier ("T-0, T-1, T-2, T-3") number following the compliance statement. See AFI 33-360, Publications and Forms Management, for a description of the authorities associated with the Tier numbers. Submit requests for waivers through the chain of command to the appropriate Tier waiver approval authority, or alternately, to the Publication OPR for non-tiered compliance items.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This publication is substantially revised and must be completely reviewed. This revision incorporates awards which were not included in the last revision and awards which were transferred to AFPC/DPSIDR. This change also redefines the eligibility for the Air Force Recognition Ribbon (AFRR) and identifies in Attachment 4 those awards for small team recognition.

(AFSPC) This rewrite adds guidance for the Billy J. Millis USAF Combat Communications Leadership Award within Chapter 11.

Chapter 1

GENERAL INFORMATION REGARDING SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS

1.1. Nominating Procedures. Commanders at all levels actively advertise the nomination procedures for special trophies and awards. Commanders verify achievements and nominate those qualified for appropriate awards. MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU commanders, vice commanders, or executive directors indorse nominations on their personnel. When nominating persons or units assigned to other commands, commanders acquire by letter, the coordination of the commander or vice commander of the owning MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR, with the parent MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU commander's coordination.

1.2. Air Force-level Awards. Air Force functional activities or private organizations establish Air Force-level awards. The designated OPR and the Air Force Uniforms and Recognition Branch (AF/A1SRU) approve implementing instructions. Notify AF/A1SRU when the award is terminated.

1.2.1. The experts in a given function will manage functional awards. Functional managers will ensure nomination write-ups are limited to two pages, using the Air Force Form 1206, Nomination for Award. Exceptions to this requirement must be approved by AF/A1SRU. Functional areas requiring the use of base visits to determine award winners will limit such visits to one visit per base per award.

1.3. Wartime Guidance. Programs governed by this instruction will continue during conflicts below the level of declared war. In the event that a national emergency is declared by Congress or the President of the United States, programs sponsored by Headquarters (HQ) USAF may be suspended. The Air Force will suspend administrative support for programs sponsored by private organizations.

1.4. Establishing Special Trophies and Awards Programs. Commanders at any level may establish special trophies and awards programs to recognize military and civilian members and units or organizations. Include such recognition programs in appropriate base supplements.

1.4.1. Awards may be named in honor of living or deceased Air Force military members and Department of the Air Force (DAF) civilians who had honorable records and made significant contributions to the Air Force or to the functional area in which the award is being established. Consider individuals of prominence or those whose careers or actions were important and meaningful to the function in which the award will be established. Thoroughly review the career and personal history of the individual to ensure the individual is worthy of such honor before naming an award in their honor. When an award is established, the designated award OPR or manager will send a letter, signed by the appropriate commander or vice commander, to AFPC/DPSIDR notifying of the establishment of the award. Include the award and criteria in an appropriate supplement or instruction. Commanders at all levels are responsible for ensuring and maintaining the integrity of special trophies and awards programs. All awards named for individuals will be established only in accordance with this instruction. The requirements of this instruction are mandatory when considering memorial-type awards. List what sources were reviewed to perform the background check and that verification has been made that no derogatory information was found on the individual which would preclude naming an award in their honor.

1.4.2. Possible sources to review when determining individuals' suitability for memorialization are:

1.4.2.1. Military personnel records (retired or deceased military members), which are located at the National Personnel Records Center (NPRC), Military Personnel Records, 9700 Page Avenue, St Louis, MO 63132-5100.

1.4.2.2. Military personnel records (active duty, separated, and retired): As of 1 October 2004, the Air Force Personnel Center began receiving military records for transfer to electronic record storage. Records are located at AFPC/DPSIR, 550 C Street West, Suite 21, Randolph AFB TX 78130.

1.4.2.3. Civilian personnel records (retired or deceased DAF civilians), which are located at the National Archives and Records Administration, NPRC (Civilian Personnel Records), 111 Winnebago Street, St Louis, MO 63118-4126. After 20 April 2009, civilian records are also located at the National Archives and Records Administration Annex, 1411 Boulder Boulevard, Valmeyer IL, 62295.

1.4.2.4. Public libraries for archived newspaper articles.

1.4.2.5. Local newspapers.

1.4.2.6. Local courthouse records.

1.4.2.7. Local Air Force Office of Special Investigations or Security Forces.

1.4.2.8. Interview family, friends, acquaintances, and coworkers.

1.4.3. Do not duplicate existing special trophies and awards programs in either name or criteria (recognizing an achievement or accomplishment in performance reports or a citation to accompany an award is not considered duplication or dual recognition). Award elements will not duplicate elements of existing formal award programs. Refer to AFI 65-601V1, Budget Guidance and Procedures, for further guidance regarding funding for award elements. Awards must be of nominal value. Awards may not be redeemable for cash, merchandise, or services. The cost of awards will be commensurate with the significance of the achievement being recognized.

1.4.4. A one-time unique trophy or award may be given to an individual or unit whose achievements make a significant contribution to the effectiveness and efficiency of the Air Force.

1.5. Travel for Military Members or Department of the Air Force Civilians. Air Force military or Department of the Air Force civilian personnel selected for an award listed in this instruction will attend the presentation ceremonies at government expense. When a unit is selected to receive an award, the unit commander attends the presentation ceremony to accept the award on behalf of the unit.

1.6. Travel for Non-Military Members or Non-Department of the Air Force Civilians. When individuals who are neither military members nor Department of the Air Force civilians are selected as recipients of these awards, invitational travel will be authorized so they may attend the presentation ceremony. Refer to the AFI 24-101, Passenger Movement, for instructions and limitations on travel reimbursements for members and employees and invitation travel orders for family members and non-Department of the Air Force civilians.

1.6.1. MAJCOM commanders or vice commanders are authorized to approve spouse travel for award recipients assigned to their command. This approval authority may not be further delegated. When spouse travel is approved, invitational travel authorization orders will be issued and only transportation costs will be funded; per diem will not be paid. If there is no spouse, the member may elect to invite one family member to attend the award ceremony.

1.7. Funds. Authorize funds for reasonable costs of trophies, plaques, and so forth for presentation purposes. Do not authorize cash awards.

1.7.1. Use appropriated funds for trophies and awards to recognize mission accomplishment. Such awards include Junior Officer, Noncommissioned Officer (NCO), or Airman of the Quarter or Year, functional work area, and so on. Refer to AFI 65-601, Volume 1. This authority does not apply to awards for employees who are paid from nonappropriated funds (NAF) according to policies regarding the use of NAF.

1.7.2. Do not use NAFs to supplement awards paid from appropriated funds. When appropriated funds are not available or are not authorized, the commander may use NAF to buy trophies and awards, if authorized by AFI 34201, Use of Nonappropriated Funds (NAFs). Do not use NAFs for awards to civilian personnel who are paid from appropriated funds.

1.7.3. Handle trophies or funds donated to set up a special trophy or award under AFI 51-601, Gifts to the Department of the Air Force.

1.8. Air Force Recognition Ribbon (AFRR) Eligibility. Award this ribbon to recipients selected as the overall winners of Air Force-level/Air Force functional special trophies and awards. Any recipient selected for an eligible award since 12 October 1980, when the AFRR was established, receives the ribbon. These trophies and awards can be found in the applicable AFI's listed in Attachment 4.

1.8.1. The following military members wear the ribbon:

1.8.1.1. Named individuals or members of small teams who receive Air Force-level special trophies and awards listed in this instruction.

1.8.1.2. Named individuals or members of small teams who receive a functional Air Force-level special trophy or award managed by the functional area of responsibility and listed in this instruction.

1.8.1.3. Named individuals or members of small teams competing in Air Force-wide competitions sponsored by a MAJCOM whose award is listed in this instruction.

1.8.2. A small team is defined as an organized, developed component of members composed for a specific purpose (i.e., Tiger Team) or an operation (i.e., bomber crew, security forces contingent, etc.) that is not constituted as a USAF organization by a DAF letter. As such, a team is not entitled to a lineage and honors history or an emblem. The determining factor in eligibility is either individual achievement or achievement of a small team in which each team member's contribution was integral to mission accomplishment, as opposed to organizational groups in which the contribution of individuals could vary widely.

1.8.3. Recipients must be determined by Air Force-wide competition in that functional specialty.

1.8.4. Awards must be earned via a competitive process; winners must be nominated by the Air Force in private organization competitions, and won in an Air Force-wide competition.

1.8.5. Civilian recipients, who meet the criteria in paragraphs 1.8.1.1. through 1.8.1.3., wear the Air Force Recognition lapel pin.

1.8.6. The following are not eligible to receive the ribbon:

1.8.6.1. Organizations, units, or activities cited as recipients of Air Force-level special trophies or awards.

1.8.6.2. Members assigned to such cited organizations, units, or activities. Example: When a unit or organization is named as the recipient, no one in that cited unit or organization is awarded the ribbon.

1.8.6.3. Nominees and selectees of special trophies and awards programs at MAJCOM, FOA, DRU, base, or unit levels.

1.8.6.4. Nominees or selectees for 12 Outstanding Airmen of the Year (12 OAY). The appropriate ribbon, the Outstanding Airman of the Year Ribbon, is described in paragraph 3.10.7.

1.8.7. Award of the AFRR to Air Force-level or functional awards not listed in Attachment 4 require approval from AF/A1.

1.9. OPRs of Air Force-level functional special trophies and awards include entitlement information to the ribbon in instructions pertaining to their functional special trophies and awards programs. OPRs will send a message each year to their functional counterparts announcing the recipients of their respective awards. Send a copy of the message to the member's Military Personnel Section (MPS), Customer Service Element, for Military Personnel Information Data System update and file in the member's military personnel records.

Chapter 2

PREPARING NOMINATION PACKAGES FOR SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS MANAGED BY AFPC SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS OFFICE (AFPC/DPSIDR)

2.1. Preparing Nominations.

2.1.1. Prepare nominations for awards which AFPC/DPSIDR manages as outlined in the respective paragraphs. Note: Please review the solicitation messages for each award (as applicable) which are located on AFPC's website for current nomination package procedures, contents, and suspense dates.

2.1.1.1. Vigilance should be taken to protect Privacy Act (PA) and Personal Identifying Information (PII) when submitting or sending nominations, applications or other documents to DoD agencies whether by postal methods, faxing or through government internet systems. As a minimum review the following references that contain sensitive or For Official Use Only information: AFI 33-332, Air Force Privacy Program; AFMAN 33-152, User Responsibilities and Guidance for Information Systems; AFI 33-129, Web Management and Internet Use.

2.1.2. MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs will ensure nominations arrive at AFPC/DPSIDR by the suspense dates listed in the message for the respective award. MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs will send an e-mail to AFPC/DPSIDR by the date shown if no nominations will be submitted for any of these awards.

2.1.3. The following instructions apply to all awards for which AFPC/DPSIDR is the OPR (unless noted otherwise in the award nomination instructions).

2.1.4. Use AF Form 1206 when required in the award description. Ensure nomination write-ups are limited to the front side of AF Form 1206. Use a bullet or point-paper format, not running narrative. AFPC/DPSIDR is the Air Force OPR for this form. Other OPRs of functional awards may use the form.

2.1.5. For those awards requiring the write-up be placed on bond paper, limit each write-up to the length cited in the instructions for the award, and follow the format prescribed in the message or according to the sponsor's website.

2.1.6. Do not sign the write-ups.

2.1.7. A public release statement memorandum will be addressed to AFPC/DPSIDR. The nominee must sign and date a statement that reads verbatim: "I DO OR DO NOT AGREE TO GIVE PERMISSION TO USE MY NAME, RANK, AND BASE OF ASSIGNMENT IN THE ANNOUNCEMENT MESSAGE OR FOR ANY PUBLICITY REGARDING THE AWARD WINNER."

2.1.8. Avoid flowery prose and hyperbole. State the facts.

2.1.9. Use the format in Attachment 2 when biographies are required.

2.1.10. Use the format in Attachment 3 when citations are required.

2.1.11. Send all nominations electronically in original format. For example, the biography and citation will be saved and emailed as a Word attachment. Scan only those documents requiring a signature into a PDF file.

2.1.12. Send through command channels and get the endorsement of the MAJCOM/FOA/DRU commander, vice commander, or executive director.

2.1.13. Do not send classified material.

2.1.14. Note any special requirements shown in the description of the award.

2.1.15. Nominate individuals in the category of competition that corresponds to the grade held for the majority of the award period unless otherwise stated.

2.1.16. The MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU Special Trophies and Awards office must e-mail negative submission responses to AFPC/DPSIDR.

Chapter 3

CRITERIA AND INFORMATION FOR SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS MANAGED BY AFPC SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS OFFICE (AFPC/DPSIDR)

3.1. Air Force Association (AFA) Aerospace Awards . Each year, the AFA gives several trophies and awards of Air Force-wide interest relating to aerospace activity. The AFA considers nominations from the Air Force in the following awards:

3.1.1. Theodore Von Karman Award. For the most outstanding contribution to national defense by either a military member or Department of the Air Force civilian, unit, or group of individuals in the field of science and engineering, preferably relating to aerospace activity. Consider the contribution in the broadest sense of the term.

3.1.2. David C. Schilling Award. For the most outstanding contribution to national defense in the field of manned flight in the atmosphere or space by either a military member or Department of the Air Force civilian, unit, or group of individuals. While priority is given to activity directly related to manned flight, do not overlook a significant contribution in the area of policy or procedure that advances flight activity.

3.1.3. Gill Robb Wilson Award. For the most outstanding contribution to national defense in the field of arts and letters covering a wide range of activity, including writing, speaking, media relations, sculpturing, and painting, and so on by a military member or Department of the Air Force civilian, unit, or group of individuals.

3.1.4. Hoyt S. Vandenberg Award. For the most outstanding contribution directly or indirectly in the field of aerospace education or training by a military member or Department of the Air Force civilian, unit, or group of individuals. Note: The AFA no longer solicits external organizations for nominations.

3.1.5. Citation of Honor. For the most outstanding contribution to national defense significantly exceeding standard performance by an Air Force military member, Department of the Air Force civilian, unit, or group of individuals. Nominations for enlisted members are encouraged to be submitted for this award.

3.1.6. The period of service for these awards is 1 January - 31 December.

3.1.7. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination for each award. Do not submit nominations on previous Air Force Association-level winners for the same category. They can; however, be submitted in another award category.

3.1.8. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.1.9. All Air Force military members, organizations, and Department of the Air Force civilians are eligible for nomination unless otherwise stated. Retirees are not eligible.

3.1.10. Base nominations on achievements occurring during the current calendar year. This does not, however, rule out a project that may have been started more than a year ago but was completed during the current calendar year.

3.1.11. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.1.12. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.1.13. Do not send posthumous nominations.

3.1.14. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.2. AFA Outstanding Civilian Employees of the Year . Each year, the AFA recognizes the outstanding achievements made by Air Force civilian appropriated fund employees. Nominations are evaluated on criteria such as nature of the achievement, development of techniques or procedures which significantly increased mission effectiveness, and breadth of impact. The AFA considers nominations from the Air Force in the following four categories:

3.2.1. Civilian Wage Employee of the Year (Federal Wage System Employees).

3.2.2. Civilian Program Specialist (GS-1 through GS-11).

3.2.3. Civilian Program Manager (GS-12 and GS-13).

3.2.4. Civilian Senior Manager (GS-14 and GS-15).

3.2.5. The period of service for these awards is 1 January - 31 December.

3.2.6. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination for each award.

3.2.7. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.2.8. Send a cover page which includes the following headers: Employee's Name, Position Title, Series and Grade, Organization and Location, Telephone Number (DSN and Commercial), and Brief Employment History.

3.2.9. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.2.10. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.2.11. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.3. William A. Jump Memorial Award. This award is presented annually in recognition of outstanding service in administration and notable contributions to the efficiency and quality of public service. It was established in 1950 in honor of the late William A. Jump, Budget and Finance Officer of the US Department of Agriculture.

3.3.1. Civilian Career Federal Employees who have not reached his or her 37th birthday as of December of the previous calendar year and whose work performance over a period of at least 5 years has demonstrated outstanding competence and interest in any area of public administration, leadership shown in the direction or development of programs, creativity and resourcefulness, close adherence to the basic principles of enlightened public service, integrity, and dedication to duty are eligible for this award.

3.3.2. For the purpose of this award, the term "work" refers to both line or staff activity and the term "public administration" covers all aspects of executive administrative direction, supervision and development or operation of federal activities. It does not include achievements specifically of a scientific or technological nature, or of attorneys in the practice of their legal profession. However, persons engaged in such specialized professions may be eligible for the award if their performance involves general program and policy administration or organizational planning, and executive or supervisory responsibilities of sufficient administrative importance to warrant special recognition.

3.3.3. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination for this award.

3.3.4. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.3.5. Limit the write-up to no more than 10 pages. The write-up must be typewritten in word format, single spaced, with new subject paragraphs double-spaced and numbered to correspond with the solicitation message.

3.3.6. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.3.7. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.4. Noncommissioned Officers Association (NCOA) Vanguard Award. Each year, the NCOA recognizes a noncommissioned officer from each of the military services, who has performed a particularly heroic act, on or off duty, which resulted in the saving of life or in preventing serious injury. The NCOA conducts presentation ceremonies each summer at the NCOA's annual convention. The NCOA notifies the Air Force recipient of the date, place, and travel arrangements for the ceremony. The recipient receives an engraved plaque presented by the NCOA. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.4.1. Nominate Air Force enlisted members in grades Senior Airman through Chief Master Sergeant for this award.

3.4.2. The heroic act must be voluntary action initiated by the nominee and not a result of directions or orders.

3.4.3. The act must have been a legitimate attempt to save life or prevent serious injury to another person or persons and not an act of bravado.

3.4.4. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.4.5. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination. Do not submit joint nominations.

3.4.6. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.4.7. Send a biography limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.4.8. Do not send nominations for posthumous awards.

3.4.9. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.5. Verne Orr Award. The AFA established this award in honor of former Secretary of the Air Force Verne Orr. The award recognizes an Air Force unit (active or reserve) that makes the most effective use of its human resources. The AFA conducts a presentation ceremony each September during the AFA convention. The award element consists of a large permanent wall plaque, displayed in the Pentagon, listing each winning unit. The AFA presents a smaller replica to the winning unit. All Air Force units and organizations are eligible, regardless of size. The accomplishments of the unit should be mission-oriented and focus on how the unit excelled in its use of people to achieve its full potential and accomplish the mission. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.5.1. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination.

3.5.2. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR by 1 March.

3.5.3. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.5.4. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.5.5. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.6. Joan Orr Air Force Spouse of the Year Award . This award, sponsored by the AFA, honors the late Mrs. Joan Orr, wife of former Secretary of the Air Force Verne Orr. The award recognizes spouses of military members for their significant contributions to the Air Force. The award element consists of an engraved plaque presented at the AFA annual convention in Washington DC each September. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.6.1. The nominee's husband or wife must be serving in the Air Force (active duty, Guard, or Reserve). Military members (active duty, Guard, or Reserve) are not eligible to be nominated for the award.

3.6.2. Nominations will include facts and specific accomplishments that clearly state the individual's contributions to the Air Force. The write-up should state what the nominee did and the results of the nominee's efforts. When applicable, nominations will include specific examples in any of these areas:

3.6.2.1. Participation in Base and Community Activities.

3.6.2.2. Articulate and Influential Spokesperson for the Air Force.

3.6.2.3. Voluntary Service in Air Force-related Organizations and Activities.

3.6.2.4. Contributions to the States or to the Nation.

3.6.2.5. Moral and Religious Leadership.

3.6.2.6. Contributions to the Resolution of Contemporary Social Problems.

3.6.2.7. Membership in Professional, Civic, or Cultural Organizations.

3.6.2.8. Self-Improvement Efforts.

3.6.2.9. Leadership and Other Accomplishments.

3.6.3. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination.

3.6.4. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.6.5. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.6.6. Send a biography limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.6.7. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.6.8. Nominations for posthumous awards are accepted.

3.6.9. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.7. General and Mrs. Jerome F. O'Malley Award. This award is named in honor of the late General and Mrs. Jerome F. O'Malley, former Commander, Tactical Air Command. It recognizes the wing commander and spouse whose contributions to the Nation, the Air Force, and the local community best exemplify the highest ideals and positive leadership of a military couple in a key Air Force position. The master award element consists of a French crystal eagle in flight on an engraved base. The recipients receive a citation and a portrait of a falcon, rose stem in its beak and talons extended preparing to land on a branch, at a presentation ceremony conducted by the Air Force Chief of Staff (CSAF). The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.7.1. Nominees must have served as a wing commander for at least 6 months during the award period as well as having at least two (2) years of retainability to be eligible for consideration.

3.7.2. Nominations must include specific facts and examples identifying the nominees as exceptional leaders and spokespersons for the Air Force. The write-up should focus on what the nominees did as a team and the results of their accomplishments. Ensure the write-up focuses equally on the contributions of the spouse. Include specific examples in the following areas:

3.7.2.1. Leadership. Innovation and ingenuity in solving problems and in developing systems, programs, and ideas that positively impacted on the mission, morale, and welfare of Air Force or wing activities and personnel. The leadership abilities of both the wing commander and spouse must clearly demonstrate professionalism, integrity, morality, and excellence in inspiring others by personal example, conduct, and character.

3.7.2.2. Positive and Articulate Spokespersons for the Air Force. Projection of leadership into the private community as evidenced by the wing commander and the spouse's assumption of leadership roles and participation in social, cultural, religious, and other wing or community service activities.

3.7.2.3. Other Accomplishments. List other achievements or accomplishments which set the wing commander and the spouse apart from others of similar responsibilities. Include unique contributions to the Nation, the Air Force, the wing, the base, or the community.

3.7.3. Each MAJCOM, the ANG, and AFRC may nominate one wing commander and spouse.

3.7.4. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.7.5. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.7.6. Send a "joint" biography limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.7.7. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.7.8. Nominations for posthumous awards are accepted.

3.7.9. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.8. Department of Defense (DoD) Distinguished Civilian Service Award. Each year, the DoD presents this award to a small number of DoD civilian employees whose careers reflect exceptional devotion to duty and extremely significant contributions of broad scope to the efficiency, economy, or other improvement in the operation of DoD.

3.8.1. Career civilian employees at any level and duty station who are paid from appropriated funds and who have made truly outstanding contributions to the DoD-wide mission are eligible for this award. It is imperative that this award be reserved for performance characterized by extraordinary, notable and prestigious contributions that impact the department as a whole.

3.8.2. This award does not require direct interaction with the Secretary of Defense or other senior level officials; however, it does require contributions that have significant impact to national security.

3.8.3. The award may honor a recipient's distinguished duty and service to DoD spanning up to ten years.

3.8.4. Nominees should normally have previously received the Air Force Decoration for Exceptional Civilian Service.

3.8.5. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination for this award.

3.8.6. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.8.7. The write-up must be typewritten, single spaced, in word format, with each major section (I, II, etc.) on a new page to correspond with the solicitation message.

3.8.8. Send a citation for each nomination. Prepare a double-spaced proposed citation for the signature of the Secretary of Defense containing no more than 150 words which highlight the significance of the individual's achievements.

3.8.9. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.9. AFA Team of the Year Award. Each year, the AFA selects a specific enlisted career field for recognition. These are professionals who clearly display superior technical expertise, attract the praise of their superiors, and provide leadership and inspiration to their coworkers. Individuals nominated need not be members of a team in the traditional sense of the term; they need only be assigned to the same career field. The AFA honors the five members and their spouses (if applicable) at a ceremony each May in Washington DC. The period of the award is 1 January - 31 December. AFPC/DPSIDR solicits nominations from the appropriate Air Force functional manager for that career field and provides further guidance to the functional manager concerning nominations. NOTE: Do not submit nominations unless you receive a tasking to do so from either AFPC or the Air Force functional manager of that career field.

3.9.1. Limit the write-up to one single-spaced typewritten page using the front side of AF Form 1206. Use bullet (talking paper or point paper) format. Do not sign the write-up.

3.9.2. Send a biography, limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.9.3. Send a citation with each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.9.4. Effective 1 January 2007, individuals named as AFA Team of the Year are no longer eligible for the Air Force Recognition Ribbon, as they are not members of a specified team, but represent the selected career field as a whole.

3.10. 12 Outstanding Airmen of the Year (12 OAY) Award. Established by the Air Force, this program recognizes 12 enlisted members in a range of grades representing a cross section of career fields. The AFA honors the 12 OAY and their spouses at its annual convention in Washington DC each year. AFPC/DPSI sends a message outlining nomination procedures to the MAJCOMs, FOAs, and DRUs each year. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.10.1. There are three categories of competition: Airman (Airman through Senior Airman); NCO (Staff Sergeant and Technical Sergeant); and Senior NCO (Master Sergeant through Chief Master Sergeant).

3.10.2. Base nominations only on achievements that occurred during the current calendar year. For example, the nominees' achievements for the 2009 program should cite achievements occurring from 1 January 2008 through 31 December 2008.

3.10.2.1. Since nominees are representatives of the Air Force enlisted force, they must also stand the test of a "whole life/whole career" scrutiny. The "whole life/whole career" screening will be conducted at the Air Force level only.

3.10.3. All nominees must sign a statement of intent agreeing if selected as a MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU nominee, they will obtain the required retainability in order to compete at Air Force level. All nominees who meet the Air Force selection board must have sufficient retainability so that, if selected as a 12 OAY, they can serve on the AFA Enlisted Advisory Council for a 12-month period which commences the month of their induction (September) as a 12 OAY. For example, the 2009 12 OAY serve from September 2009 through September 2010. Therefore, the 2009 MAJCOM and DRU nominees would need retainability through 30 September 2010. The annual AFPC/DPSI nomination message outlines procedures to follow in obtaining retainability for those MAJCOM and DRU nominees who do not have sufficient retainability. Contact AFPC Skills Management Branch, Reenlistments Section (AFPC/DPSOAE), for assistance regarding retainability. Failure on the part of the MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU to meet retainability requirements on their nominee will result in the nominee being withdrawn from the Air Force-level competition. If an individual is not selected as a 12 OAY, cancel the extension.

3.10.4. Send a statement of intent, signed and dated by the nominee, which includes the following statements verbatim:

3.10.4.1. "I have not applied for a commissioning program and, if selected as a 12 OAY, will not apply for a commissioning program until no earlier than 1 Mar following notification of 12 OAY selection."

3.10.4.2. “If selected as a 12 OAY, I agree to serve in the capacity as an enlisted ambassador representing and assisting the Air Force in enlisted recruiting and retention efforts and matters. I understand I may be called upon by my MAJCOM/CC and MAJCOM/CCC to publicize and promote 'the Air Force way of life' and attend events or other venues deemed appropriate which may positively impact upon recruiting and retention."

3.10.4.3. "I attest that the facts I have provided for this nomination are true and correct to the best of my knowledge."

3.10.5. If the MAJCOM or DRU will not submit nominations, send a letter or message to AFPC/DPSIDR advising of this.

3.10.6. Nomination packages will include:

3.10.6.1. A write-up of 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206. Nominations should include specific facts, achievements, and examples showing the individuals are exceptional. Achievements should distinguish the member from his or her peers. Nominations must include the following areas and cite examples that occurred only during the award period.

3.10.6.1.1. Leadership and Job Performance in Primary Duty. Describe significant leadership accomplishments and how well the member performed assigned primary and additional duties. Define the scope and level of responsibilities and the impact on the mission and unit. Include any new initiatives or techniques developed by the member that positively impacted the unit and/or the mission. Include results of Air Force, MAJCOM, and Numbered Air Force-level inspections and/or evaluations. Include awards received; e.g., NCO of the Quarter, Maintenance Professional of the Year, and so forth.

3.10.6.1.2. Significant Self-Improvement. Show how the member developed or improved skills related to primary duties; e.g., formal training, Career Development Course enrollment or completion, On-the-Job Training, certifications, off-duty education related to primary duties, and so forth. Include completion of any professional military education (PME) as well as awards earned during in-residence attendance. Include any off-duty education not directly related to primary duties; e.g., class, course, degree enrollment and/or completion, grade point average. Cite any other relevant training or activity that significantly enhanced the member's value as a military citizen.

3.10.6.1.3. Base or Community Involvement. Define the scope and impact of the member's positive leadership and involvement in both the military and civilian community. Include leadership, membership, or participation in unit advisory councils, professional military organizations, associations, and events; e.g., President of Top 3, enlisted dining-out committee, member of Air Force Sergeants Association, Sunday school teacher, and so forth.

3.10.6.2. Send a biography, limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.10.7. Outstanding Airman of the Year Ribbon (OAYR). Each airman nominated to the Air Force-level competition receives the OAYR. AFPC/DPSIDR sends a letter to the nominees' respective MAJCOM, FOA or DRU as well as to Automated Records Management System for file in the member's electronic records. The letter is the source document indicating those individuals listed in the letter are authorized to wear the OAYR. See AFI 36-2803 and AFI 36-2903, Dress and Personal Appearance of Air Force Personnel, for more information regarding wear of the ribbon. The Air Force message announcing the 12 OAY is an additional source document for the 12 selectees only. The 12 selectees wear the OAYR with bronze service star device.

3.10.8. Service Dress Uniform. All individuals nominated to the Air Force-level competition will receive a gift card for merchandise from Headquarters Army and Air Force Exchange Service (AAFES). AAFES will send the gift card to the nominees. Those selected as 12 OAY will also receive a gift card from AAFES for a mess dress uniform.

3.10.9. Outstanding Airman Badge (OAB). The 12 OAY wear the OAB for 1 year from the date of formal presentation. The badge is presented to the 12 OAY during the AFA convention each September.

3.10.10. The office of the Chief Master Sergeant of the Air Force (CMSAF) sends travel and lodging information for the 12 OAY and their spouses to attend the AFA convention. In addition to being recognized and honored at the AFA's annual convention, each of the 12 OAY serves as a member of the AFA Enlisted Advisory Council for the year immediately following the annual AFA convention. As members of this council, they attend subsequent meetings at the call of the council chairman.

3.10.11. Travel Funding for the 12 OAY. Fund travel from normal temporary duty (TDY) funds of the unit to which the 12 OAY are assigned in order that they may attend the AFA convention, any follow-on meetings of the AFA Enlisted Advisory Council, and all other events requiring their attendance in support of recruiting and retention.

3.10.11.1. If unit funds are insufficient to fund travel, MAJCOMs will provide any additional funding to the units to cover travel or other related expenses involving the 12 OAY in regard to public appearances and so forth on behalf of recruiting and retention matters.

3.10.11.2. MAJCOM/CCCs will maintain records of all travel (cost, where the trips were taken, and whether the unit or MAJCOM paid) performed by the 12 OAY in support of recruiting and retention. They will report these statistics to the CMSAF quarterly.

3.10.11.3. If a 12 OAY is reassigned during his or her one-year tenure, the gaining unit and MAJCOM funds the required travel. To assist in meeting out-of-pocket expenses while the 12 OAY attend the AFA convention and any follow-on meetings and events, commands are authorized to award them $300 to help defray these costs.

3.10.11.4. Commanders may fund these out-of-pocket expenses under their special morale and welfare expenditure authority. Refer to AFI 34-201.

3.10.12. The 12 OAY may receive the supplemental clothing allowance listed in AFI 36-3014, Clothing Allowances for Air Force Personnel.

3.10.13. Publicize the 12 OAY program at all levels and offer command presentation of the Outstanding Airman Ribbon. Maximum public exposure of the program is desired, including local radio and television appearances. Coordinate all public affairs activities in conjunction with the 12 OAY program with the MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU public affairs offices.

3.10.14. Nominations for posthumous awards are accepted.

3.10.15. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.11. USAF First Sergeant of the Year Award. This award, established by the Air Force, recognizes the important contributions and leadership qualities exhibited by Air Force members in the First Sergeant Career Field, Special Duty Identifier (SDI) 8F000. The Air Force Sergeants Association (AFSA) honors the recipient during presentation ceremonies each summer at the AFSA annual convention. AFSA notifies the recipient of the date, place, and travel arrangements for the ceremony. The award element consists of an engraved plaque. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.11.1. Nominees must serve in the position of First Sergeant and have held SDI 8F000 for at least six months of the award period in order to be eligible.

3.11.2. Nominations must include the following areas and cite examples that occurred during the award period.

3.11.2.1. Leadership and Job Performance in Primary Duty. Describe significant leadership accomplishments and how well the member performed assigned primary and additional duties. Define the scope and level of responsibilities and the impact on the mission and unit. Include any new initiatives or techniques developed by the member that positively impacted the unit and/or the mission. Include results of Air Force, MAJCOM, and Numbered Air Force-level inspections and/or evaluations. Include awards received; e.g., NCO of the Quarter, Maintenance Professional of the Year, and so forth.

3.11.2.2. Significant Self-Improvement. Show how the member developed or improved skills related to primary duties; e.g., formal training, Career Development Course enrollment or completion, On-the-Job Training, certifications, off-duty education related to primary duties, and so forth. Include completion of any PME as well as awards earned during in-residence attendance. Include any off-duty education not directly related to primary duties; e.g., class, course, degree enrollment and/or completion, grade point average. Cite any other relevant training or activity that significantly enhanced the member’s value as a military citizen.

3.11.2.3. Base or Community Involvement. Define the scope and impact of the member's positive leadership and involvement in both the military and civilian community. Include leadership, membership, or participation in unit advisory councils, professional military organizations, associations, and events; e.g., President of Top 3, enlisted dining-out committee, member of Air Force Sergeant's Association, Sunday, school teacher, and so forth.

3.11.3. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination.

3.11.4. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.11.5. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206.

3.11.6. Send a biography, limited to one single-spaced typewritten page (Attachment 2).

3.11.7. Do not send nominations for posthumous awards.

3.11.8. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.12. American Legion Spirit of Service Award. This award, sponsored by the National Headquarters of the American Legion, is presented annually to an enlisted member from each of the military services for outstanding volunteer service performed off duty in the local community. Presentation of the award will take place during the American Legion National Convention.

3.12.1. The period of service is 1 January – 31 December.

3.12.2. Nominees must be enlisted members in the grades Airman through Staff Sergeant for this award.

3.12.3. Nominations must include the following areas and cite examples that occurred during the award period.

3.12.3.1. Volunteer community service performed by the member in the local community and show how the community benefited.

3.12.3.2. Contributions and examples that show the individual is an outstanding military performer.

3.12.4. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination.

3.12.5. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.12.6. Limit the write-up to one single-spaced typewritten page using the AF Form 1206.

3.12.7. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.12.8. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.13. Outstanding Department of Defense (DoD) Employee with a Disability Award. The award recognizes the contributions and achievements made by physically and mentally disabled federal employees within DoD. Nominees for this award must be federal employees who demonstrate job performance clearly exceeding requirements in spite of severely limiting physical and/or mental factors and who exhibit courage and initiative in overcoming disabilities. Winners are honored at a ceremony in Washington DC each year.

3.13.1. Eligible individuals include appropriated and nonappropriated fund employees and foreign nationals employed overseas.

3.13.2. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

3.13.3. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination for this award.

3.13.4. Submit nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.13.5. Limit the write-up to no more than 5 pages. The write-up must be typewritten in word format and numbered to correspond with the solicitation message.

3.13.6. Previous winners of this Secretary of Defense Award may not be re-nominated until at least 10 years have passed.

3.13.7. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.14. Zachary and Elizabeth Fisher Distinguished Civilian Humanitarian Award . This award is presented to an individual(s) or organization(s) that exemplify the Fisher's personal qualities of patriotism, generosity, and selfless dedication to the members of the Armed Forces of the United States, through an outstanding humanitarian act or service, selflessly contributes an extraordinary amount of time, talent or resources to benefit members of the US Armed Forces and significantly enhances the quality of life of military members or their families through the act or service.

3.14.1. Governing directive is AFI 36-2840(I), Zachary and Elizabeth Fisher Distinguished Civilian Humanitarian Award. Please review this regulation for criteria, eligibility, and other nomination information.

3.14.2. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation message for specific nomination package requirements as well as nomination suspense date.

3.15. Government Employees Insurance Company (GEICO) Public Service Awards. These awards were established in 1980 to emphasize GEICO's belief that the contributions of many hardworking, talented government employees deserve special acclaim. The GEICO Philanthropic Foundation sponsors and grants the awards in four categories:

3.15.1. Substance Abuse Prevention and Treatment,

3.15.2. Fire Prevention and Safety,

3.15.3. Physical Rehabilitation,

3.15.4. Traffic Safety and Accident Prevention.

3.15.5. All career civilian federal employees are eligible. Nomination accomplishments can be based on the current calendar year, past years, or span over several years.

3.15.6. GEICO will judge nominations principally on the impact of the nominees work related or non-work related contributions and the extent to which they served as an inspiration to others and brought credit to the federal service. A $2,500 cash award, a commemorative plaque, and an all expense paid trip to Washington DC for the winner and spouse will be presented to four active federal employees.

3.15.7. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.15.8. Each MAJCOM, FOA, or DRU may submit one nomination in each category.

3.15.9. Limit the write-up to no more than 3 pages. The write-up must be typewritten in word format and must include the following: Name, title, grade, organization, address including zip code, phone number, and a brief biographical sketch with education, employment history, and family information. Describe in detail the specific achievement or service which would qualify the employee for the award. Name and phone number of a point of contact if further information is needed.

3.15.10. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.16. USAF Cadet of the Year Award. Established in 2000, the award recognizes the most outstanding cadet in an Air Force commissioning program. The award is sponsored by the Air Squadron (a private organization comprised of high-ranking British citizens who are aviation enthusiasts), and was established to pay tribute to the United States military for supporting the United Kingdom over the years.

3.16.1. The master award element consists of an "Air Squadron Sword," which is permanently displayed at the Pentagon. The recipient cadet receives a citation and a sterling silver coin, which is presented by CSAF.

3.16.2. The period of service for the USAF Cadet of the Year Award is 1 June - 31 May.

3.16.3. Each commissioning source, Air Force Reserve Officer Training Course, Basic Officer Training School, Academy of Military Science, and United States Air Force Academy (USAFA), may each nominate three cadets.

3.16.4. Nominees must be enrolled in, or be a graduate of, one of the four commissioning sources listed in the above paragraph.

3.16.5. Nominations should be based upon achievements that occurred at the commissioning source during the award period. This does not, however, rule out a project that may have been started outside the award period and completed during the award period.

3.16.6. Include the following areas in each write-up:

3.16.6.1. Military Performance. Address leadership, officership, initiative or organizational skills, discipline, personal appearance, etc., which are exhibited through additional duties, drill and ceremonies, shooting skills, personal and room inspections, and so forth.

3.16.6.2. Academics. Address academic tests, briefing skills, and writing exercises/tests, and so forth.

3.16.6.3. Physical fitness. Address physical fitness tests, obstacle course, leadership course, field training, and so forth.

3.16.7. Send nominations to AFPC/DPSIDR IAW official solicitation message.

3.16.8. Limit the write-up to 30 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206. Use the lead-off topics mentioned in above paragraph 3.16.6.

3.16.9. Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

3.16.10. Please refer to the AFPC/DPSIDR solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

3.17. National Public Service Award (NPSA). The award was established by the American Society for Public Administration and the National Academy of Public Administration to honor individuals who make outstanding contributions and whose accomplishments can be viewed as models of public service within and outside the work environment. The NPSA program recognizes individuals who exhibit the highest standards of excellence, dedication, and accomplishment over a sustained period of time and who are creative and highly skilled career managers at all levels of the public service.

3.17.1. A distinguished committee will review nominations and select up to five award recipients who have spent a significant portion of their careers as public service practitioners at the federal, state, local or international levels of government or in nonprofit organizations that provided direct public service.

3.17.2. NPSA winners will be those who have, on a sustained basis, done some or all of the following:

3.17.2.1. Made a profound difference to improve service to the public,

3.17.2.2. Been willing to take risks to achieve change,

3.17.2.3. Fostered a more democratic society,

3.17.2.4. Served as a champion of social equity,

3.17.2.5. Changed the way a governmental organization operates so that it better achieves its goals,

3.17.2.6. Achieved substantial savings in government operations,

3.20. Affirmative Employment Program (AEP) Awards (formerly the Distinguished Equal Employment Opportunity [EEO] Awards). These awards recognize civilian and military personnel who have demonstrated superior achievements in pursuing affirmative employment objectives and goals (people with disabilities) and implementing and maintaining the special emphasis programs. Nominees must have clearly demonstrated their contributions through measurable accomplishments toward attaining the Air Force Affirmative Employment Goals. The period of service for the award is 1 October – 30 September.

3.20.1. These awards recognize Air Force military and civilian personnel for distinguished service in support of the AEP in the categories listed below:

3.20.1.1. Commander Action. This category is designed for the commanders of MAJCOMs, FOAs, DRUs, intermediate commands, and center, wing, base, or tenant organizations. Nominees must have demonstrated personal commitment to equal opportunity and affirmative employment program objectives/goals (people with disabilities) through achievement of positive affirmative employment actions or results-oriented management objectives. Nominees must have demonstrated leadership commitment and support for the special emphasis programs.

3.20.1.2. Supervisory Action. This category is designed for first-level civilian and military supervisors who have established a positive affirmative employment program at their work sites to further equal opportunity for employees. Nominees must also have demonstrated superior abilities in fulfilling the objectives of the equal opportunity and affirmative employment program through developmental opportunity program initiatives, career development activities, incentive awards, and other employment processes.

3.20.1.3. Affirmative Employment Program. This category is designed for civilian and military personnel, Affirmative Employment Program managers, and Human Resource specialists. Nominees must have clearly demonstrated superior abilities in attaining the Air Force affirmative employment objectives/goals (people with disabilities) by assisting leadership, managers, and supervisors in their efforts to recruit, hire, advance, and retain women, minorities, and people with disabilities. Nominees must have implemented, administered and maintained effective special emphasis programs. Nominees must have established and maintained effective relationships with community organizations and groups.

3.20.1.4. Special Emphasis Programs. This category is designed for civilian and military personnel who have contributed significantly to the employment and advancement of minorities, women, and people with disabilities, including veterans and the wounded warriors. These nominees must have clearly demonstrated their contributions through training programs; effective outreach and recruitment; increased representation of minorities, women, and people with disabilities; positive management involvement; and community involvement. Nominees must have clearly demonstrated their contributions through measurable accomplishments toward attaining the Air Force affirmative employment objectives/goals (people with disabilities). These programs include six separate categories: Federal Women's Program, Hispanic Employment Program, People with Disabilities Program, Black Employment Program, Asian American/Pacific Islander Employment Program, and American Indian/Alaskan Native Employment Program.

3.20.2. An individual will be nominated in one category only. The previous year award winners will not normally be nominated two years in succession. When such nominations are submitted, the justification must highlight the additional substantial contributions in furthering the EEO and AAP objectives about the previous year's nomination. The facts supporting the achievements for contributions of the nominees must be stated concisely; limited to the period covered, and must clearly define the results achieved in the specific category.

3.20.3. Each recipient will receive a letter signed by the Secretary of the Air Force and an engraved plaque.

3.20.4. Each MAJCOM, FOA, and DRU may submit one nomination in each category for this award.

Chapter 8 (Added-AFSPC)

HQ AFSPC/4 AWARD

8.1. (Added-AFSPC) Air Force Space Command Space Launch Maintainer of the Year Award

8.1.1. (Added-AFSPC) Purpose:

8.1.2. (Added-AFSPC) The AFSPC Space Launch Maintainer of the Year recognizes individual's superior contributions to space launch maintenance and mission assurance for the previous calendar year. It is the highest AFSPC-level individual award available to recognize demonstrated superior performance in space launch maintenance based solely on duty performance.

8.1.3. (Added-AFSPC) The award covers the calendar year, 1 January to 31 December.

8.1.4. (Added-AFSPC) Eligibility: Only Air Force Airmen/NCOs/SNCOs and Company Grade Officers assigned to AFSPC for at least six months at eligible grade category are eligible for consideration.

8.1.5. (Added-AFSPC) Criteria: This award is designed to recognize personnel who directly support maintenance and mission assurance in AFSPC Space Launch.

8.1.6. (Added-AFSPC) Nomination Procedures:

8.1.7. (Added-AFSPC) Wings/Centers electronically send packages no later than 1 December to HQ AFSPC/A4U workflow, a4u.wf@us.af.mil. Contact HQ AFSPC/A4U awards manager for further information. Only one nomination per category, per Wing/Center/Directorate, per calendar year will be submitted. Late and/or incorrectly formatted nomination packages are not considered for selection.

8.1.8. (Added-AFSPC) Award Packages will be accompanied by a nomination recommendation letter signed by the unit commander (digital signatures are acceptable). This letter must also include the mailing and e-mail address of the individual's Group and Squadron Commanders as well as unit Public Affairs Office, to ensure appropriate level of recognition and publicity.

8.1.9. (Added-AFSPC) Nomination will be on a one page AF Form 1206. No more than 20 lines (not including line headings) containing duty performance (includes all primary and additional duties), mission accomplishments and significant improvements to processes and procedures. Off duty activities are not factors for consideration and bullets will not contribute to total score.

8.1.10. (Added-AFSPC) Bullet statements will be used. Use double spacing between line headings and single spacing between bullets. Bullet statements should be written in a style that describes a particular action, its result and finally its impact to the Unit, MAJCOM, Air Force or beyond.

8.1.11. (Added-AFSPC) Acronyms not approved in AFI 21-214 may be defined on the continuation page of the AF Form 1206.

8.1.12. (Added-AFSPC) Description of Award: HQ AFSPC/A4U supplies the plaque/trophy and congratulatory letters to be shipped to the individual winners at the earliest opportunity.

8.1.13. (Added-AFSPC) Award Presentation:

8.1.13.1. (Added-AFSPC) Individual Units provide appropriate award presentation ceremony that reflects honor and gratitude to the winners.

8.1.13.2. (Added-AFSPC) Wings/Centers and units will be notified by e-mail once selected winners are approved by HQ AFSPC/A4U.

8.1.13.3. (AFSPC) An AFSPC/A4U approved panel, chaired by the HQ AFSPC/A4U maintenance awards manager, selects the proposed winners. The HQ AFSPC/A4 is the final approval authority.

8.1.14. (Added-AFSPC) OPR/POC: HQ AFSPC/A4U Workflow box, a4u.wf@us.af.mil.

Chapter 10 (Added-AFSPC)

AFSPC/CC AWARD

10.1. (Added-AFSPC) The Air Force Space Command Ivan A. Getting Innovation Award

10.1.1. (Added-AFSPC) Purpose: This award was named after Dr. Ivan A. Getting, a space pioneer recognized in the Space and Missile Hall of Fame, whose creative work in navigational technology provided a key stepping stone to the Global Positioning System, one of the most innovative technologies in recent history.

10.1.2. (Added-AFSPC) Eligibility: Any Air Force military member, Air Force civilian, retired Air Force member or civilian who retired during the award period, or a team comprised of the aforementioned individuals, are eligible for award nomination. Additionally, team nominations may include contractors who are currently performing under a contract for AFSPC. Individuals cannot be nominated as an individual and as part of a team during the same award period.

10.1.3. (Added-AFSPC) Criteria: Nominations will be evaluated on four key factors: Novelty, effectiveness, significance and transferability.

10.1.3.1. (Added-AFSPC) Novelty: A leap in creativity demonstrated by fundamentally altering the governance, management, direction or policy of a particular jurisdiction; significantly improving delivery of a service; introducing a substantially new technology or service concept.

10.1.3.2. (Added-AFSPC) Effectiveness: Proven, tangible results established though responding to needs of a well-defined clientele.

10.1.3.3. (Added-AFSPC) Significance: Improves operations or programs relating to the Armed Forces by successfully addressing a military problem of national import and scope; substantially diminishing the challenge(s) within its jurisdiction; changing organizational culture or transforming traditional approaches to management or problem solving.

10.1.3.4. (Added-AFSPC) Transferability: Reproducible, wholly or partially, in other government entities via replication in other jurisdictions; offers a model for other organizations; components, concepts, principles or insights suggest similar solutions for other disciplines or policy areas.

10.1.4. (Added-AFSPC) Nomination Procedures: HQ AFSPC/CCX will call for nominations in May of each year, which will include award instructions and templates for submission. Award submissions are due to the HQ AFSPC/CCX office no later than 30 June that year.

10.1.5. (Added-AFSPC) Award Procurement: HQ AFSPC/CCX is responsible for procuring both trophy with engraving and certificates, with Government Purchase Card (GPC) from the Executive Director (CA). Once completed, HQ AFSPC/CCX will give the items to the ceremony POC to hold for presentation.

10.1.6. (Added-AFSPC) Award Presentation: The individual award winner will receive a trophy and a certificate. Team winners will each receive a certificate and the trophy will reside in primary unit. The annual award winner(s) will be recognized in a ceremony by the AFSPC/CC during the Fall AFSPC/CC Conference held September each year. HQ AFSPC/CCX will prepare and present the winner's package for AFSPC/CC's approval, notify the winner(s) of the date/time of the awards ceremony and notify HQ AFSPC/PA of award winner(s).

10.1.7. (AFSPC) OPR/POC: HQ AFSPC/CCX Workflow box, afspc.ccx@us.af.mil.

Chapter 11 (Added-AFSPC)

24 AIR FORCE AWARD

11.1. (Added-AFSPC) The Billy J. Millis USAF Combat Communications Leadership Award

11.1.1. (Added-AFSPC) Purpose: The award is named in honor of the late Colonel Billy J. Millis, an Air Force communicator and pilot who logged over 9000 hours of flight time across a dozen platforms during WWII, Korea, and Vietnam conflicts. He was chosen to become the first commander of the 5th Mobile Communications Group and led them during the Vietnam conflict and the Cold War. The award recognizes the superior accomplishments of officers and enlisted leaders, who demonstrate ingenuity, perseverance, and leadership to solve communications problems in the performance of their duties and the conduct of their lives.

11.1.2. (Added-AFSPC) Eligibility: It is limited to those active duty or National Guard Airmen whose duties require them to be assigned to a 24 AF-aligned combat communications unit. Each DRU or unit may submit one individual in each of the following categories:

11.1.2.1. (Added-AFSPC) Senior Officer (Major through Colonel).

11.1.2.2. (Added-AFSPC) Junior Officer (2d Lieutenant through Captain).

11.1.2.3. (Added-AFSPC) Senior Enlisted (MSgt through CMSgt).

11.1.2.4. (Added-AFSPC) Junior Enlisted (Amn through TSgt).

11.1.3. (Added-AFSPC) Nomination Procedures: Include the following areas in each write-up:

11.1.3.1. (Added-AFSPC) Scope of Responsibility: Include duty title, level of organization, number of individuals (military and civilian) supervised directly and indirectly, dollar value of assets controlled, or programs for which nominee has direct responsibility.

11.1.3.2. (Added-AFSPC) Leadership Initiative: Nominees must demonstrate superior problem-solving abilities by using creative ingenuity, by inspiring exceptional ownership and pride in accomplishing the mission, saving money, and recognizing opportunities to overcoming unique problems.

11.1.3.3. (Added-AFSPC) Airmanship: Nominees must motivate others by personal example, by character and conduct displayed when taking care of Airmen, considering Airmen's time, and by efforts to boost morale to assist in the accomplishment of goals.

11.1.3.4. (Added-AFSPC) Community Involvement: Projection of leadership initiative into the private community, as evidenced by the nominee's assumption of leadership roles in social, cultural, and religious, as well as other community service activities, may also be considered.

11.1.3.5. (Added-AFSPC) Limit the write-up to 20 typewritten lines (to include headers, if applicable) using the front side of AF Form 1206. Use the lead-off topics mentioned in paragraph 3.24.2.

11.1.3.6. (Added-AFSPC) Send a biography limited to one single-spaced type written page (Attachment 2).

11.1.3.7. (Added-AFSPC) Send a citation for each nomination (Attachment 3).

11.1.3.8. (Added-AFSPC) Send nominations to 24 AF/A1 Workflow, 24af.a1workflow@us.af.mil IAW official solicitation message.

11.1.3.9. (Added-AFSPC) Please refer to the 24 AF/A1 solicitation announcement for specific nomination package requirements.

11.1.3.10. (Added-AFSPC) Do not send nominations for posthumous awards.

11.1.4. (Added-AFSPC) Award Procurement: Each recipient receives a citation and a plaque depicting an image of Colonel Millis.

11.1.5. (Added-AFSPC) Award Presentation: The 24th AF/CC conducts the presentation during their annual awards ceremony each year. The period of service for the award is 1 January - 31 December.

11.1.6. (Added-AFSPC) OPR/POC: 24 AF/A1 Workflow, 24af.a1workflow@us.af.mil.

BIOGRAPHY SAMPLE FOR SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS

SENIOR AIRMAN JOHN Q. DOE
AFSC: 3M031, Services Apprentice
Senior Airman John Q. Doe is a Services Apprentice assigned to the Ford Dining Facility as a shift leader, Jones Air Force Base, Texas. He is 27 years old. Airman Doe was born in Lexington, Kentucky, on 1 August 1966. He attended Central High School, graduating as class salutatorian in May 1984. He lettered each year in football, basketball, and baseball. He served as student body president and was a member of the math and science club. After graduating from high school, Airman Doe was locally employed. He served as a church council officer for the Good Shepherd Church in Covington, Kentucky. He subsequently enlisted in the Air Force in 1990 and arrived at Lackland AFB, Texas, in October 1990 for basic training. Upon graduation, he received a direct-duty assignment to the First Services Squadron, Jones AFB, Texas, arriving in December 1990. Since arriving at Jones AFB, he has served in a variety of positions, including store room clerk and his current assignment. Airman Doe is an active member of the Big Brothers Association and assisted in his unit's Thanksgiving dinner to feed the homeless this past year. His military awards include the National Defense Service Medal and the Air Force Training Ribbon. He attends Lucas College in Smith, Texas, and is working toward a Bachelor's Degree in Business Administration. Note: Single-space the narrative portion of the biography. Double-space between name and AFSC.

CITATION FORMAT FOR SPECIAL TROPHIES AND AWARDS

CITATION TO ACCOMPANY THE AWARD OF
THE _____ AWARD FOR 20__
TO
JOHN J. JONES

Sergeant John J. Jones distinguished himself as Chief, Weather Station Operations, 12th Operations Support Squadron, Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, from 1 July 2003 to 30 June 2004. Sergeant Jones expertly led a team of highly-skilled weather technicians in the largest and most diverse Wing within Air Education and Training Command, ensuring the safe completion of over 40,000 training sorties per year. He anticipated and provided all operational atmospheric support to the Numbered Air Force and Wing commanders and staffs, as well as eight flying squadrons with 170 aircraft assigned. The distinctive accomplishments of Sergeant Jones reflect credit upon himself and the United States Air Force.

Note: Print the citation in landscape format. Left and right margins must be 1 1/2 inches. Limit the citation to approximately 50-70 key words which properly describe the nominee's accomplishments or achievements. Key words are defined as those words between the opening and closing statements.
