This Addendum is an extension of, and is incomplete without Headquarters Department of the Air Force Mission Directive (HQDAFMD) 1-24, Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs. It provides specific re-delegations of authority/re-assignments of responsibility from Assistant Secretary of the Air Force for Manpower and Reserve Affairs (SAF/MR) to the Air Force Review Board Agency (AFRBA). SAF/MR retains oversight of authority/responsibility as defined in these re-delegations/re-assignments. This Addendum provides for re-delegation of these authorities within specified limits. Re-delegations of authority/re-assignments of responsibility made prior to the date of issuance of this Addendum remain effective insofar as such re-delegations are not inconsistent with the terms of this Addendum unless superseded by new issuances. The Secretary of the Air Force (SecAF) provided the specific direction and authority contained in this document; therefore, any ambiguities regarding delegated authority arising from HQDAFMD 1-24, HAFMD 1-32, Deputy Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Manpower, Personnel and Services, HAFMD 2-3, Deputy Chief of Space Operations for Human Capital, and this document will be resolved with deference to the more specific direction found in this Addendum.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been revised and should be completely reviewed. The changes made in this revision include (1) the AFRBA Director retains the authority to approve or deny a request for remission, in whole or in part, when the applicant's cumulative debt to be remitted exceed $50,000; (2) the AFRBA Director retains the authority to approve or deny a request for remission of a group remission application where any individual applicant's cumulative debt exceeds $50,000; (3) adds authority for the AFRBA Director authority to take final action on requests for waiver of repayment of voluntary separation pay for members who receive retired pay or retainer pay in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1175a, Voluntary separation pay and benefits; and (4) adds authority for Director of the Air Force Civilian Appellate Review Office to take final action on final orders when the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC) Administrative Judge has entered a decision in favor of the Department of the Air Force.

1. Purpose and Applicability. This Addendum re-delegates authority/re-assigns responsibility conveyed by the Secretary of the Air Force (SecAF) to the SAF/MR in HAFMD 1-24. The authorities are re-delegated and provide for re-delegation of that authority within specified limits. The re-delegations of authority/re-assignments of responsibility conveyed in this document supersede all previous direction, delegations and re-delegation affecting these matters. Except as expressly stated herein, the direction included in this Addendum does not apply to any action affecting the sentence of a courts-martial.

2. Re-Delegation. Unless expressly allowed by this Addendum, authority to further re-delegate authority delegated by this Addendum is prohibited. Further delegation of authority delegated by this Addendum will specify the official(s) to whom, and the intermediate officials (if any) through whom, the re-delegation is made. When a subordinate official further re-delegates authority addressed in this Addendum, it will be done in the form of a memorandum and a copy will be promptly provided to SAF/MR, with copies provided to any intermediate official(s) through whom the re-delegation was made.

3. Withdrawal of Delegated Authority. The SecAF, the Under Secretary, SAF/MR and any other official through whom delegation has been made, may withdraw authority from any subordinate official to whom delegation or re-delegation has been made, to any higher level in the chain of delegation and re-delegation, on a case by case basis, or by categories of cases, or otherwise. To ensure that this authority to withdraw may be exercised in appropriate cases, all officials exercising delegated or re-delegated authority under this Addendum will notify the SecAF and SAF/MR, in writing through the procedures specified by SAF/MR and any re-delegation instruments, before taking action in any matter identified as being of high sensitivity or having the potential for significant Congressional or public interest. Any such notification will be coordinated through the General Counsel of the Air Force (SAF/GC) with an information copy to the Chief of Staff of the Air Force (CSAF) and the Chief of Space Operations (CSO)Chief of Staff.

4. Authority.

4.1. The Director, AFRBA, is hereby delegated the authority to:

4.1.1. Take final action to either grant or deny an application for correction of military records upon consideration and recommendation of a panel of the Board for Correction of Military Records (BCMR), except that the following authorities are not delegated: the authority to grant an application for correction of a military record when denial has been recommended by a unanimous vote of a panel of the BCMR; the authority to deny an application for correction of military records when correction has been recommended by unanimous vote of a panel of the BCMR;

4.1.2. Take final action on requests for remission of indebtedness in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 9837, Settlement of accounts: remission or cancellation of indebtedness of members, and Department of Defense 7000.14-R, Vol 16, Chapter 4, Paragraph 9., Remission or Cancellation of Indebtedness.

4.1.3. Take final action on requests for waiver of repayment of voluntary separation pay for members who receive veterans administration disability compensation, retired pay or retainer pay in accordance with 10 U.S.C. § 1175a;

4.1.4. Take final action on individual complaints of discrimination and make the final decision on whether to file an appeal with the EEOC on an individual complaint of discrimination in accordance with Department of Defense Directive 1440.1, The DoD Civilian Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO) Program, and Title 29, Code of Federal Regulations, Part 1614;

4.1.5. Take final action under the provisions of 37 U.S.C. § 908, Reserves and retired members: acceptance of employment, payments, and awards from foreign governments, including actions to recoup compensation received from the foreign government without required approval;

4.1.6. Make a Survivor Benefit Plan election under the provisions of 10 U.S.C. § 1449, Mental incompetency of member, and Department of Defense Instruction 1332.42, Survivor Benefit Plan, for members found to be incompetent; and

4.1.7. The authority to take final action on final orders when the EEOC Administrative Judge has entered a decision fully in favor of the Department of the Air Force is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency, to the Director of the Air Force Civilian Appellate Review Office.

4.2. The authority to make the final decision on applications submitted to the Discharge Review Board in accordance with Department of Defense Directive 1332.41, Boards for Correction of Military Records (BCMRs) and Discharge Review Boards (DRBs) and 10 U.S.C. § 1553, Review of discharge or dismissal, is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency, and through the Director, Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council to the President of the Discharge Review Board, Secretary of the Air Force Personnel Council. The Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency, is delegated the Secretarial Review Authority pursuant to DoDI 1332.28, Discharge Review Board (DRB) Procedures and Standards.

4.3. The authority to deny an application for the correction of military records submitted in accordance with Department of Defense Directive 1332.41 and 10 U.S.C. § 1552, Correction of military records: claims incident thereto, when denial has been recommended by unanimous vote of a panel of the Air Force Board for Correction of Military Records is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency to the Executive Director or Associate Director, Air Force BCMR.

4.4. The authority to grant an application for correction of military records submitted in accordance with Department of Defense Directive 1332.41 and 10 U.S.C. § 1552 when the correction has been recommended by the Air Staff, the correction has been recommended by unanimous vote of a panel of the Air Force BCMR, and senate confirmation is not required, is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency to the Executive Director or Associate Director, Air Force BCMR. The official exercising authority delegated under this paragraph, exercises that authority subject to the following condition: the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency must be notified before the official exercising such authority takes action in any matter identified as being of high sensitivity or having the potential for significant Congressional or public interest.

4.5. The authority to:

4.5.1. Correct the effective date of promotion for enlisted members under the authority of 10 U.S.C. § 1552(a)(2) without consideration by the Air Force BCMR if the member is a supplemental promotion selectee or is entitled to a retroactive promotion effective date as a result of being promoted after being placed in a withhold status or promoted to a grade to which the member was entitled upon enlistment or completion of basic training; and

4.5.2. Approve a constructive enlistment under the authority of 10 U.S.C. § 1552(a)(2) without consideration by the Air Force BCMR is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency to the Chief, Military Force Management, Air Force Personnel Center.

4.6. The authority to approve or deny a request for remission, in whole or in part, in accordance with Department of Defense 7000.14-R, Vol 16, Chapter 4, Paragraph 9 and 10. U.S.C. § 9837, is delegated through the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency, to the Secretary of the Air Force Remissions Board, except when under the following circumstances final action is required by the AFRBA Director:

4.6.1. The applicant's cumulative debt to be remitted would exceed $50,000; or

4.6.2. Group remission applications where any individual applicant's cumulative debt to be remitted exceeds $50,000.

5. In the event the Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency, is unavailable or the position is unfilled: The Deputy Director, Air Force Review Boards Agency is delegated all authorities otherwise delegated to the Director until such time as an appropriately appointed Director is present and available to resume such duties.

6. Revisions to addendum. This addendum may be reviewed and revised as deemed necessary by SAF/MR. Changes will be coordinated with SAF/GC and the Administrative Assistant for the Secretary of the Air Force (SAF/AA) prior to publication.
