SUMMARY OF CHANGES

Changes include removal of OO-ALC Vehicle Program Manager (VPM) responsibility to assist with the coordination of sub-assignments of vehicles to different groups and updates references. It also adds responsibilities of OGMVC requests under group VPM duties in section 2.4 and removes reference to Optional Form 345. Incorporated safety and training requirements in section 2.4.

1. General Information. This instruction provides guidance and assigns responsibilities to the OO-ALC personnel operating and controlling Air Force motor vehicles.

2. Responsibilities.

2.1. OO-ALC Commander/Director:

2.1.1. Appoints an OO-ALC VPM, civilian or military, to administer the OO-ALC Vehicle Program (VP).

2.2. OO-ALC group commanders/directors:

2.2.1. Appoints a group-level VPM, civilian or military, to administer their group's VP.

2.2.2. Supports the group VPM in the replacement vehicle buy program.

2.2.3. Supports the Air Force Vehicle Misuse, Abuse, and Accident Prevention Policy.

2.2.4. Ensures the vehicles utilized by the groups are safe and serviceable before operation through the VPM.

2.3. OO-ALC VPM:

2.3.1. Is responsible for providing program policy guidance, and regulation interpretation for the OO-ALC.

2.3.2. Provides reports and analysis to higher management reflecting status, potential problem areas, and recommendations concerning the program.

2.3.3. Maintains a signed vehicle authorization list from the group VPMs.

2.3.4. Compiles OO-ALC yearly reports and briefings from information provided from the group VPMs.

2.3.5. Liaisons between groups, 75th Logistics Readiness Squadron (75 LRS) Vehicle Fleet Management, and Air Force Materiel Command (AFMC) headquarters.

2.3.6. Reviews justification for additions or changes in vehicle requirements submitted by the group VPMs.

2.3.7. Disseminates goals and policies to support group vehicle control programs.

2.3.8. Coordinates vehicle support for real world events and exercises with group VPMs.

2.3.9. Oversees the OO-ALC Flight Line Driver's Program in conjunction with the 75th Operations Support Squadron and IAW DAFI 13-213_HILLAFBSUP. A qualified group VPM administers and completes the Airfield Driving Training Documentation and Certification Checklist, which includes a controlled test, license issuance, and input flight line license records into the air field manager's computer program.

2.3.9.1. Provide direction for groups without a flight line driver program options to fulfill flight line driving requirements.

2.3.10. In coordination with the group VPMs, defends OO-ALC vehicle needs to the 75 LRS Fleet Management and 441st Vehicle Support Operations Squadron, during reviews and revalidations.

2.3.11. Inspects vehicles and VPM office files semiannually (in conjunction with vehicle fleet function), or set up a separate inspection date agreed upon between group and OO-ALC VPM.
