1. Overview.

1.1. The Noncommissioned Officer (NCO) and Senior Noncommissioned Officer (SNCO) are members of the armed services who have been recognized as Airmen leaders and are a core element in the chain of command. Achieving the rank of SSgt and MSgt are significant in an Airman's career and honoring these milestones are necessary to preserve our Core Values, culture & heritage, and legacy as an enlisted force.

1.2. When practical and feasible, installations will host NCO and SNCO Induction Ceremonies after the annual SSgt and MSgt public promotion releases. An installation-wide event including all applicable total force units is optimal and should be considered. The date of the ceremony will be at the discretion of installation leadership. Supplemental promotion releases will not require an additional induction ceremony. Airmen on supplemental promotion lists should be inducted during the next scheduled ceremony.

1.3. When practical and feasible, a "Change of Responsibility" Ceremony should be held to signify the transition of a Senior Enlisted Leader (SEL) and highlight the role and responsibility this entails. This ceremony should take place when responsibility has shifted from the outgoing to the incoming SEL.

1.4. The following sections of this pamphlet provide a minimum expectation for each ceremony and is deliberately not intended to be prescriptive on "how" each ceremony is conducted. While similarities exist between the inductions, planning committees must ensure there is a clear delineation between an NCO and SNCO Induction. Airman Leadership School graduations will not take the place of an NCO Induction Ceremony and vice versa.

2. Noncommissioned Officer Induction Ceremony.

2.1. General. The NCO Induction Ceremony uniquely recognizes the transition of a Junior Enlisted Airman as they join the ranks of the professional NCO corps. The ceremony celebrates the accomplishments of these Airmen, and highlights the additional responsibilities now held by, and expected of, these leaders. The ceremony also allows for team development and strengthens the bond between fellow NCOs. As such, this transition should be shared among superiors, peers, subordinates, friends, and family.

Note: Hazing or rite of passage-type rituals must never be associated with these ceremonies. Command teams will have zero tolerance for any activities of this nature.

2.1.1. Sequence of Events. Attachment 5, Figure A5.1 provides a recommended sequence of events. Installations are encouraged to tailor the event to fit their unique mission and/or local community. To encourage max participation, the NCO Induction Ceremony should be held during or at the end of the duty day. Local leadership should determine uniform requirements. Uniform of the Day is acceptable. Attachment 6, Figure A6.1 provides a recommended NCO Induction Script.

2.1.2. Story of an NCO Act of Valor or Heroism. (See Attachment 5, Figure A5.1.) This serves to emphasize the importance of the NCO Tier and the impact an NCO can have. If used, the profile of an NCO who displayed an act of valor or heroism is read aloud to reinforce our culture of heritage and exemplify what it means to be a member of the Profession of Arms.

2.1.3. NCO Induction Certificate. Attachment 2, Figure A2.1 provides an example of an induction certificate. Installations are encouraged to utilize these examples to create their own certificates, keeping in mind the significance of the induction ceremony while developing them.

2.2. Senior Noncommissioned Officer Induction Ceremony.

2.2.1. General. The SNCO Induction Ceremony formally acknowledges the transition of an NCO to the highest tier of enlisted leadership. The ceremony signifies the shift of NCOs to operational leaders, stands to celebrate the accomplishments of these Airmen, and highlights the increased responsibilities now held by, and expected of, the Senior Enlisted tier. The ceremony also allows for team development and strengthens the bond between fellow NCOs. As such, this transition should be shared among superiors, peers, subordinates, friends, and family.

Note: Hazing or rite of passage-type rituals must never be associated with these ceremonies. Command teams will have zero tolerance for any activities of this nature.

2.2.2. Sequence of Events. Attachment 5, Figure A5.2 provides a recommended sequence of events. Installations are encouraged to tailor the event to fit their unique mission and/or local community. When practical and to differentiate the elevated milestone of achieving the MSgt rank, the SNCO Induction Ceremony should be held in the evening and include dinner with the attire being Mess Dress or Semi-Formal. Attachment 7, Figure A7.1 provides a recommended SNCO Induction Script.

2.2.3. Story of a SNCO Act of Valor or Heroism. (See Attachment 5, Figure A5.2..) This serves to emphasize the importance of the SNCO Tier and the impact that a SNCO can have. If used, the profile of a SNCO who displayed an act of valor or heroism is read aloud to reinforce our culture of heritage and exemplify what it means to be a member of the Profession of Arms.

2.2.4. Sword Arch. This serves as a symbolic representation of crossing into the next tier and is designed to add military professionalism and decorum to the event. Published procedures for Sword Arch requirements can be found at https://www.honorguard.af.mil.

2.2.5. SNCO Induction Certificate. Attachment 2, Figure A2.2 provides an example of an induction certificate. Installations are encouraged to utilize these examples to create their own certificates, keeping in mind the significance of the induction ceremony while developing them.

2.3. Senior Enlisted Leader Change of Responsibility.

2.3.1. General. The change of responsibility is a traditional event that is rich with symbolism and heritage. The key to the ceremony is the passing of the unit's colors (see paragraph 2.3.3.) The colors symbolize the lineage and honors of the unit, and also the loyalty and unity of its Airmen. This demonstrates to the formation that the responsibility has passed to the new Senior Enlisted Leader, and with this also passes the SEL's charge to uphold the discipline, readiness, and welfare of the organization's enlisted force. Attachment 8, Figure A8.1 provides a proposed script for change of responsibility ceremonies.

Note: Change of Responsibility ceremonies for Senior Enlisted Leaders below the wing level can be performed but will not receive official funding. Protocol offices will only serve to advise and guide the event's assigned OPR and project/action officer. Refer to AFI 34-1201, Protocol. paragraph 1.3.6.1.1.. regarding guidance in supporting events hosted by Major Command, Numbered Air Force/Direct Reporting Unit, or Wing command team members.

2.3.1.1. SELs who lead alongside a commander, on G-series orders, are the keeper of the unit's colors. Senior NCOs assigned to an authorized position, no lower than a squadron level, are authorized to have a Change of Responsibility Ceremony. SELs who assume the responsibilities of the unit's SEL position in an interim role are not authorized to have a ceremony, no matter the length of time they fill the position.

2.3.2. Core Elements of Ceremony. Understanding that each ceremony will vary based on commander's intent, there should be core elements of each event when performed. The commander should highlight the outgoing SEL's accomplishments, welcome the new SEL, and present the flag for safe keeping on the commander's behalf.

2.3.3. The passing of the unit colors or guidon from an outgoing Senior Enlisted Leader, through the commander, to an incoming Senior Enlisted Leader, highlights to the unit the SEL will ensure the safety and care of the flag and its Airmen.

THE ROLE OF A NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICER IS NO ORDINARY ONE, IT STANDS WITH PROFOUND IMPORTANCE WITHIN OUR RANKS. NARRATOR 2: (INSERT STORY OF NCO ACT OF VALOR OR HEROISM)

EXAMPLE:

TECHNICAL SERGEANT JOHN ALLAN CHAPMAN'S HEROISM IN THE BATTLE OF TAKUR GHAR DURING THE WAR IN AFGHANISTAN IS A REMARKABLE AND COURAGEOUS STORY. ON MARCH 4, 2002, AS PART OF OPERATION ANACONDA, HE AND A TEAM OF UNITED STATES NAVY SEALS FACED A DIRE SITUATION WHEN THEIR BOEING CH-47 CHINOOK HELICOPTER CAME UNDER INTENSE ENEMY FIRE. THIS ATTACK CAUSED NAVY SEAL NEIL C. ROBERTS TO FALL FROM THE HELICOPTER, AND THE AIRCRAFT HAD TO MAKE AN EMERGENCY LANDING NEARLY 4.5 MILES AWAY FROM ROBERTS' LOCATION.

CHAPMAN'S SELFLESSNESS AND BRAVERY WERE EVIDENT AS HE PROVIDED VITAL DIRECTIONS TO ANOTHER HELICOPTER, GUIDING IT TO THEIR LANDING SITE. WITHOUT HESITATION, HE AND THE TEAM VOLUNTEERED TO EMBARK ON A PERILOUS MISSION TO RESCUE ROBERTS.

AS THEY RETURNED TO RETRIEVE ROBERTS, THEY FOUND THEMSELVES UNDER HEAVY FIRE FROM THREE DIFFERENT DIRECTIONS. UNDETERRED, CHAPMAN DISPLAYED EXCEPTIONAL VALOR BY CHARGING FORWARD, ENGAGING AND ELIMINATING TWO ENEMY COMBATANTS, ALL WHILE ADVANCING TOWARD A DEFENSIVE ENEMY POSITION WITH MINIMAL PERSONAL COVER. DESPITE SUSTAINING MULTIPLE WOUNDS, HIS FEARLESS ACTIONS PLAYED A PIVOTAL ROLE IN NEUTRALIZING THE FIRST ENEMY POSITION AND ADVANCING TO THE SECOND, ENABLING HIS TEAM TO REACH SAFETY AND BREAK ENEMY CONTACT.

JOHN CHAPMAN'S UNWAVERING COMMITMENT TO THE MISSION AND HIS EXTRAORDINARY ACTS OF HEROISM SAVED THE LIVES OF THE ENTIRE RESCUE TEAM, DEMONSTRATING HIS EXCEPTIONAL DEDICATION TO HIS FELLOW SOLDIERS AND HIS COUNTRY. FOR HIS OUTSTANDING BRAVERY, HE WAS INITIALLY AWARDED THE AIR FORCE CROSS, BECOMING THE FIRST AIR FORCE COMBAT CONTROLLER TO RECEIVE THIS HONOR. SUBSEQUENTLY, HIS AWARD WAS UPGRADED TO THE MEDAL OF HONOR, MAKING HIM THE FIRST AIRMAN TO RECEIVE THIS PRESTIGIOUS RECOGNITION SINCE THE VIETNAM WAR. HIS LEGACY SERVES AS AN ENDURING SYMBOL OF THE COURAGE AND SELFLESSNESS EXHIBITED BY THOSE WHO SERVE IN THE UNITED STATES MILITARY.

WHILE THIS IS ONE SPECIFIC EXAMPLE, IT EXEMPLIFIES THE BRAVERY AND HEROISM DISPLAYED BY AIR FORCE NONCOMMISSIONED OFFICERS THROUGHOUT HISTORY. MANY NCOS HAVE, AND WILL CONTINUE, TO SHOW EXCEPTIONAL COURAGE AND LEADERSHIP IN VARIOUS CHALLENGING SITUATIONS, CONTRIBUTING SIGNIFICANTLY TO THE SUCCESS OF THE AIR FORCE'S MISSIONS."

THIS CEREMONY ALSO SERVES TO HONOR THE MEMORY OF THOSE MEN AND WOMEN OF THE SNCO CORPS WHO HAVE SERVED WITH PRIDE AND DISTINCTION. TODAY, WE REMEMBER ONE OF OUR OWN, ONE WHOSE COURAGE SHOULD NOT GO UNREMEMBERED:

NARRATOR 1: (INSERT STORY OF SNCO ACT OF VALOR OR HEROISM)

EXAMPLE:

“CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT RICHARD L. ETCHBERGER WAS A HIGHLY DECORATED AIR FORCE SNCO WHO POSTHUMOUSLY RECEIVED THE MEDAL OF HONOR FOR HIS HEROIC ACTIONS DURING THE VIETNAM WAR. IN MARCH 1968, CHIEF ETCHBERGER WAS SERVING AS A RADAR TECHNICIAN AT A TOP-SECRET RADAR SITE ON LIMA SITE 85 IN LAOS. THE SITE CAME UNDER HEAVY ENEMY ATTACK, AND CHIEF ETCHBERGER, DESPITE NOT BEING TRAINED FOR COMBAT, TOOK CHARGE OF THE SITUATION.

HE DIRECTED AIR STRIKES TO REPEL THE ENEMY AND HELPED EVACUATE WOUNDED COMRADES. WHEN THE EVACUATION HELICOPTER ARRIVED, HE LOADED WOUNDED MEN, INCLUDING THREE WHO WERE SEVERELY INJURED, BEFORE BEING FATALLY WOUNDED HIMSELF. CHIEF ETCHBERGER'S COURAGE UNDER FIRE AND HIS DETERMINATION TO SAVE THE LIVES OF HIS FELLOW AIRMEN WERE EXTRAORDINARY.

HIS ACTIONS REMAINED CLASSIFIED FOR MANY YEARS DUE TO THE COVERT NATURE OF THE MISSION. IN 2010, PRESIDENT BARACK OBAMA POSTHUMOUSLY AWARDED CHIEF MASTER SERGEANT RICHARD L. ETCHBERGER THE MEDAL OF HONOR FOR HIS GALLANTRY AND VALOR, RECOGNIZING HIS BRAVERY AND SACRIFICE IN THE LINE OF DUTY.
