SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been substantially revised and must be completely reviewed. Major changes include the addition, clarification and deletion of several delegations of authority/assignments of responsibilities within Attachment 1. Further details on the specific responsibilities of the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of the Air Force (SAF/IG) are provided within the subparagraphs of Section 3, Responsibilities.

1. Mission. The Inspector General of the Department of the Air Force (TIG) is authorized and established pursuant to Title 10, United States Code (USC) § 9020. The Secretary of the Air Force, pursuant to 10 United States Code (USC) §§ 9013-9016, may establish offices and officials within the Secretariat to assist the Secretary in carrying out their responsibilities. As documented by Paragraph 4.1.4 of HAFMD 1, Headquarters Air Force, and this Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive (HAFMD), the Office of the Inspector General of the Department of the Air Force (SAF/IG) is established as part of the Secretariat. SAF/IG independently assesses and reports on the overall readiness, economy, efficiency, and discipline of the Department of the Air Force to the Secretary of the Air Force through specified inquiries, investigations and inspections. SAF/IG ensures effective inspection and investigative systems, which includes administrative guidance and oversight for the military criminal investigative organization (MCIO) mission conducted by the Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI). SAF/IG provides administrative oversight for those mission areas specified to the Department of Defense (DoD) Cyber Crime Center (DC3) outlined in Department of Defense Directive (DoDD)

5505.13E, DoD Executive Agent (EA) for the DoD Cyber Crime Center (DC3), as delegated in Attachment 1. The Secretary of the Air Force retains ultimate responsibility for all policies related to the Department of the Air Force. Within their areas of responsibility, SAF/IG prepares policies for approval and issues official guidance/procedures via official Air Force publications to ensure implementation of those policies.

2. Organizational Relationships. The Secretary of the Air Force is responsible for, and has all legal authority necessary to conduct, the affairs of the Department of the Air Force. The Secretariat, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, the Air Staff, Chief of Space Operations, and the Space Staff perform their Department of the Air Force functions subject to the authority, direction, and control of the Secretary of the Air Force.

2.1. TIG reports to the Secretary of the Air Force, serves as an agent of the Secretary within assigned policy and program domains, and provides guidance, direction, and oversight for all matters pertaining to the formulation, review, and execution of plans, policies, programs, and budgets within their area of responsibility. TIG is accountable to the Secretary for results achieved within the policy and program domains assigned by this Directive.

2.2. TIG and SAF/IG work in cooperation with the Air Force General Counsel, The Judge Advocate General, and the Auditor General, and their respective offices, as well as other HAF organizations, which are responsible, pursuant to Chapters 903 and 905 of Title 10 (10 USC §§ 9013-9023 and §§ 9031-9038), for assisting the Secretary of the Air Force in carrying out their responsibilities.

2.3. SAF/IG has responsibility for administrative guidance and oversight of three field operating agencies: The Air Force Inspection Agency (AFIA), whose mission is documented in Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive (HAFMD) 31; the AFOSI, whose mission is documented in HAFMD 39; and the DC3, whose mission will be documented in a future Department of the Air Force (DAF) Mission Directive.

3. Responsibilities. TIG is specifically responsible for:

3.1. Inquiry into and reporting upon the discipline, efficiency, economy, and readiness of the Air Force through:

3.1.1. The Air Force Inspection System (AFIS).

3.1.2. The Complaints Resolution Program.

3.1.3. Portions of the Insider Threat Program in collaboration with the Administrative Assistant to the Secretary of the Air Force (SAF/AA).

3.1.4. Administrative oversight of AFOSI's criminal and counterintelligence programs.

3.2. Performing other duties prescribed by the Secretary of the Air Force, the Chief of Staff of the Air Force, or the Chief of Space Operations. Such other duties include, but are not limited to:

3.2.1. Serve on the Defense Council on Integrity and Efficiency (DCIE).

3.2.2. Serve on the Air Force Council (AFC).

3.2.3. Serve as advisor to the USAF Academy Executive Steering Group (ESG).

3.2.4. Serve on the Sexual Assault and Prevention and Response ESG.

3.2.5. Serve on the Air and Space Expeditionary Force Forum.

3.2.6. Serve on the Air Force Lessons Learned General Officer Steering Group.

3.2.7. Serve on the Information Technology Management Board (ITMB).

3.2.8. Serve on the Nuclear Oversight Board (NOB).

3.3. Proposing programs of inspection and investigation to the Secretary of the Air Force.

3.4. Cooperating fully with the Inspector General of the Department of Defense in connection with the performance of any duty or function by the Inspector General of the Department of Defense under the Inspector General Act of 1978 (5 USC App. § 3) regarding the Department of the Air Force.

3.5. Acting as the functional and force management proponent for the Air Force Inspector General system.

3.6. Communicating directly with the Secretary of the Air Force, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Chief of Space Operations, and all other Department of the Air Force command elements on IG matters, thereby providing advocacy on behalf of all Department of the Air Force commanders.

3.7. Supervising, directing, and guiding the AFIA.

3.8. Providing administrative guidance and oversight to the AFOSI.

3.9. Providing administrative guidance and oversight to the DC3.

4. Delegations of Authority/Assignment of Responsibility: Attachment 1 lists delegated authorities and assigned responsibilities to TIG / SAF/IG, Department of the Air Force. The authorities delegated and responsibilities assigned to TIG / SAF/IG, Department of the Air Force by this HAF Mission Directive may generally be re-delegated and re-assigned unless re-delegation or re-assignment is expressly prohibited by the attached delegation/reassignment or superseding law, regulation, or DoD issuance. While TIG may re-delegate authorities and re-assign responsibilities to other Department of Air Force officials, they will ultimately be responsible to the Secretary of the Air Force for all matters listed in paragraph 2 of this publication. Any re-delegation of authority/re-assignment of responsibility made shall not be effective unless it is in writing. Any person re-delegating authority or reassigning responsibility in accordance with this HAF Mission Directive may further restrict or condition the authority/responsibility being re-delegated/re-assigned.

5. Notifications to Congress: No re-delegation of authority/re-assignment of responsibility under this HAF Mission Directive below the level of a Deputy Assistant Secretary or three-letter office shall include authority to provide notifications or reports to Congress.

6. Continuation of Prior Re-Delegations of Authority/Assignments of Responsibility: Re-delegations of authority/assignments of responsibility made prior to the date of issuance of this HAF Mission Directive remain effective insofar as such re-delegations are consistent with the terms of this HAF Mission Directive unless superseded by a new re-delegation or assignment of responsibility.

THE OFFICE OF THE INSPECTOR GENERAL OF THE DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE (SAF/IG)

Dotted line represents SAF/IG's responsibility for administrative guidance and oversight of AFOSI, AFIA and DC3.

A2.1. The Office of the Inspector General of the Department of the Air Force (SAF/IG). SAF/IG conducts inquiries into, inspects, and reports on the state of readiness, economy, efficiency, and discipline of the Department of the Air Force.

A2.1.1. Provides administrative guidance and oversight to Air Force Office of Special Investigations (AFOSI) while AFOSI retains its independent authority to conduct its investigative and operational mission.

A2.1.2. Provides administrative guidance and oversight to DC3 while DC3 retains its independent authority to conducts its mission areas.

A2.1.3. Guides the inspection of Department of the Air Force activities, personnel, and policies through AFIA.

A2.2. Subordinate staff offices include:

A2.2.1. Executive Services (SAF/IGE). SAF/IGE supports TIG in interpreting and implementing administrative policy and managing the security and travel programs for the SAF/IG staff.

A2.2.2. Analytics and Assessment Directorate (SAF/IGA). The Analytics and Assessment Directorate develops and executes a "system of systems" that provides TIG with trends data providing a holistic picture as to the state of discipline in the Department of the Air Force as required by Title 10 USC § 9020. This effort will keep senior leaders apprised of potential problem areas earlier, allowing commanders the opportunity to resolve issues faster, to enhance mission readiness as well as the economy and efficiency of the force.

A2.2.3. Complaints Resolution Directorate (SAF/IGQ). The Complaints Resolution Directorate supports TIG as the focal point for Department of the Air Force administrative investigations and complaints resolution.

A2.2.4. Air Reserve Component (ARC) Advisors (SAF/IGR). As provided in Title 10 USC § 10211, the Air Force Reserve and ANG Advisors' manpower authorizations include specific positions for ARC affairs to advise directors of higher staff levels and take part in preparing and managing policies, plans, programs, and regulations affecting the ARC.

A2.2.5. Senior Official Inquiries Directorate (SAF/IGS). The Senior Official Inquiries Directorate supports the SAF/IG in developing policy on and conducting inquiries of complaints and allegations made against senior Department of the Air Force officials (active, reserve, ANG, civilians, and retired) in the grade of O-7 select and above; Air National Guard colonels with a certificate of eligibility; current and former members of the Senior Executive Service (SES) or equivalent; Department of the Air Force civilian presidential appointees; and other matters as directed by the Secretary of the Air Force, Chief of Staff of the Air Force, Chief of Space Operations, or TIG.

A2.2.6. Special Investigations Directorate (SAF/IGX). The Special Investigations Directorate supports the Air Force Security and Investigative Activities Programs (S&IA), the Counterintelligence (CI) Program, the General Defense Intelligence Program (GDIP), the Military Intelligence Program (MIP), portions of the Force Protection Antiterrorism Program, and the Digital and Multimedia (D/MM) Forensics and Cyber Investigative Training Programs. SAF/IGX also manages and conducts inspections of HAF/SAF Special Access Programs (SAPs) for SAF/IG.
