The use of the name or mark of any specific manufacturer, commercial product, commodity, or service in this publication does not imply endorsement by the Air Force.

SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been substantially revised and should be completely reviewed. The major changes to this publication are as follows: enlisted members who receive Basic Allowance Subsistence (BAS) are authorized to use the dining facility as cash paying customers. Additionally, retirees, along with immediate family members can use the facility on weekends and during Specialty Meals (occurs once per month). Also, foreign military members are authorized to use the facility, to include ordering flight/box meals. Lastly, installation leaders may utilize the facility for the purpose of furthering the development, and ensuring the quality of life, of their assigned personnel (non-regular basis). Product number has been changed from LUKEAFBI 34-239 to LUKEAFBI 34-240.

1. General.

1.1. In accordance with AFMAN 34-240, Food Service Program Management, Attachment 2, the 56th Fighter Wing Commander (56 FW/CC) has determined that use of the dining facilities be primarily for Essential Station Messing (ESM) customers and Temporary Duty (TDY) personnel. All members receiving the BAS must pay for all meals or rations received from a government mess or provided on behalf of the government (except when a patient in a hospital). Food service management will monitor usage of the dining facilities and enforce this instruction as needed to meet the intent of the 56 FW/CC.

1.2. All requests for exceptions to this policy must be forwarded to the 56th Force Support Squadron Commander (56 FSS/CC) in writing, explaining the circumstances and must include a date and time requested for approval.

2. Authorized Use of Ray V. Hensman Dining Facility and T-Bolt Café.

2.1. ESM members, active duty/DoD civilian TDY personnel with government meals directed on their orders, Civilian Fire Fighters on alert on a Fire Engine, Civilian Security Forces Personnel on post (patrolling and/or guarding a gate) and members of any Reserve component performing drill requirements.

2.2. Enlisted members who receive BAS are authorized to use the dining facility as cash-paying customers.

2.3. Military heritage meetings are authorized.

2.4. Installation leaders, both military and civilian, may utilize the dining facility, on a non-regular basis, in order to support the professional and personal development of their subordinates, some of whom are otherwise entitled to use of the dining facility, with the intent of fostering a positive climate and morale in the unit.

2.5. Dependents of E-4 and below that are in Permanent Change of Station (PCS) status. No operating charge will be incurred by the member and/or dependent(s). Member must have copies of PCS orders.

2.6. Dependents of deployed members Monday-Friday for dinner only; weekends all day. Dependents must have a copy of sponsor's deployment orders.

2.7. Retirees and their immediate family members are authorized to use the dining facility on Saturday and Sunday and during Specialty Meals (occurs once per month).

3. Unauthorized Use of Ray V. Hensman Dining Facility.
