SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This document has been substantially revised and needs to be completely reviewed.

Chapter 1

OVERVIEW

1.1. Overview. The NGB Form 22, Report of Separation and Record of Service, should be considered one of the most valuable forms within an ANG member's official record. The NGB Form 22 (Attachment 2):

1.1.1. Provides separating members with brief, clear records of their military service of the Air National Guard (ANG) at the time of discharge, separation, or retirement.

1.1.2. Reflects a member's service characterization, eligibility for reenlistment, and the reason for separation, discharge, or retirement.

1.1.2.1. Is required for use by separated/discharge members asking for a review of their discharge action or are seeking reentry into one of the branches of the U.S. Armed Forces.
1.1.2.2. Inaccurate information on the NGB Form 22 could result in delay or denial of benefits or the ability to reenter the U.S. Armed Forces.

1.1.3. Provides local civilian and government agencies with authoritative information needed to administer any state/territory laws that may apply to members seeking veteran's benefits.

1.2. The NGB Form 22. The NGB Form 22 is generated by the Air Reserve Personnel Center (ARPC) for all separations and discharges from the ANG with the exception of separations for being a minor in accordance with AFI 36-3209 or deaths. Copies are automatically uploaded into the Automated Records Management System (ARMS) by ARPC and made available to members upon their request.
