Attachment 2—ORGANIZATIONAL CHART 5

1. Mission. The 18 AF mission is to provide ready aircraft, Airmen, and equipment for contested global air mobility operations…anytime, anywhere. 18 AF provides command oversight and readiness advocacy for 12 wings and 1 direct reporting unit. Located at Scott AFB, Illinois, 18 AF partners with AMC staff directorates to present deployable aviation and support equipment and forces to support unified combatant commands.

2. Command. 18 AF is a direct reporting unit assigned to AMC (see Attachment 2 Figure A2.1 for organizational structure).

2.1. 18 AF Commander (18 AF/CC) is under the command of AMC/CC, and normal command channels apply except when otherwise authorized. 18 AF/CC exercises administrative control of assigned forces to include command authority to organize, train, and equip.

2.2. 18 AF/CC exercises General Court-Martial Convening Authority (GCMCA) over assigned and attached personnel in accordance with Department of Air Force Instruction (DAFI) 51-201, Administration of Military Justice.

3. Responsibilities.

3.1. Commands twelve wings and one direct reporting unit focused on air mobility operations and support to include: air refueling, airlift, airdrop, aeromedical evacuation, and installation support.

3.2. Provides installation management to mission partners on the command's installations.

3.3. Provides mission-ready, expeditionary Airmen to support unified combatant commanders for on-going military operations.

3.4. Provides deployable and expeditionary aviation and support teams to execute global air mobility operations and support worldwide.

3.5. Extends the existing AMC infrastructure through in-place employment and delivery of rapid forward deployable capabilities and presentation of forces to warfighting unified commanders.

3.6. Advocates with Commander Air Force Forces and AMC-Staff Directors for installation readiness and preparedness of force to support operational requirements.

3.7. Exercises GCMCA to ensure good order and discipline.

3.8. Exercises Senior Rater responsibilities to deliberately develop Airmen for today's and tomorrow's operations.
