1. Background.

1.1. In accordance with AFI 10-403, unit commanders are ultimately responsible for the readiness of their assigned personnel and cargo and must ensure the unit can meet the mission capability statement (MISCAP) of all assigned unit type codes (UTCs). Additionally, they are responsible for reviewing the Installation Deployment Plan (IDP) at least annually and developing unit checklists/operating instructions to ensure the unit can comply with the plan and meet deployment requirements.

1.2. This instruction provides standardization for senior leader oversight of 940 WG unit deployments by establishing a process for unit commander deployment briefings and review by the Wing Commander or Group Commanders as outlined in the following specific guidance. Briefing and review procedures will be implemented for 940 WG unit deployments effective 1 Jan 2010.

2. Responsibilities.

2.1. Unit Commanders will:

2.1.1. Be responsible for providing a briefing to the 940 WG/CC or CV for those deployments that equal or exceed 50 percent of unit personnel or 25 persons using the provided Wing deployment briefing template which is posted on the 940 WG Community of Practice (CoP).

2.1.1.1. Coordinate directly with 940 LRS/RDRC for deployment details and requirements while coordinating with 940 OSF/OSX for the briefing template, scheduling timeframe and any pertinent details.

2.1.1.2. Coordinate directly with the 940 WG/CC support staff to schedule briefings. The briefings may also be aligned with the quarterly 940 WG Deployment Review Board (DRB) or other periodic meetings.

2.1.1.3. Coordinate with their respective Group/CC prior to providing briefings for the 940 WG/CC.

2.1.2. Be responsible for providing a briefing to their respective Group/CC for those deployments that equal or exceed 25 percent of unit strength or 10 persons using the Wing deployment briefing template and coordination as outlined in 2.1.1.1. and 2.1.1.2. except scheduling will be coordinated through Group/CC support staff.

2.1.3. Coordinate with their respective Group/CC to ensure that all other deployments are sufficiently briefed/summarized by email, as a minimum, in addition to the normal AEF coordination or DRB coordination process as required.
