SUMMARY OF CHANGES

The parent instruction, command supplement, and this supplement have been substantially revised and must be read in their entirety. This supplement enhances units' abilities to meet mishap prevention program requirements. This supplement adds additional guidance and may place more stringent requirements on units than those prescribed by the DAF or AFGSC.

1.6.22.13.1. (Added) Flying squadron safety officers will maintain and monitor privileged safety information non-disclosure agreements and training currency for authorized aviators assigned and/or attached to their flying units.

1.6.22.13.2. (Added) Unit-designated representatives within the Maintenance Group will maintain and monitor privileged safety information non-disclosure agreements and training currency for authorized aircraft maintenance members assigned to their units.

1.6.22.13.3. (Added) 28BW Safety (28 BW/SE) will maintain and monitor privileged safety information non-disclosure agreements and training currency for all other wing personnel who are authorized to access privileged safety information and not assigned or attached to a flying or aircraft maintenance unit.

3.4. (Added) 28BW/SE normally conducts safety program assessments annually in conjunction with unit annual safety inspections.

3.4.1. (Added) USRs and WorkCentre Supervisors will upload all safety program documents requested by 28 BW/SEG into their designated Safety SharePoint folders by the first day of the month of their units scheduled annual assessments.

3.6.2. (Added) Commanders, appointed ADWSRs, and USRs within 28 BW must establish and maintain an AFSAS account for the durations of their appointments to ensure uninterrupted access to safety reports. When creating or updating their accounts, all USRs, to include ADWSRs and SAFSOs, will use the office symbol "USR".

3.6.2.3.1. (Added) USRs will enter corrective actions, interim controls, and required follow-ups, as specified in paragraph 3.6.1 into the AFSAS Hazard Management module.

3.7.1. (Added) All personnel below wing level will document spot inspections in the electronic continuity book located on the relevant safety discipline's SharePoint site. USRs will document these inspections in the "USR Spot Inspection Log" available on the Occupational Safety SharePoint USR.

Any hazards identified during the pre-season inspection require a final inspection verifying all identified hazards are corrected prior to field use.

7.3.3.2.1. (Added) 28BW/SEF will designate all Airfields located near EAFB or near 28 BW-owned training airspace as either primary or secondary airfields based on the volume of civilian traffic that occurs at that airfield and its proximity to military operations. 28 BW/SEF will visit primary airports in person at least annually to conduct training on MACA and distribute MACA materials. 28BW/SEF will contact secondary airfields annually via mail, telephone, e-mail, or an in-person visit and provide MACA materials. 28 BW/SEF will coordinate with the EAFB airspace manager and airfield operations flight commander prior to MACA visits/correspondence to ensure inclusion of all applicable personnel and/or information. See Attachment 5 for airfield designations.

7.3.5.9. (Added) Each flying squadron will brief and document a minimum of two SEF-related topics each month. Briefings should last approximately five minutes and should cover recent mishaps or other SEF-related topics.

7.5.4.1. (Added) 28BW/SEF will contact the Military Personnel Flight (MPF) to run a query in Military Personnel Data System (MilPDS) monthly to identify personnel who have received formal safety training and may potentially serve as safety board members.
