2.8.2. Ensure augmentees attend scheduled training for their assigned tasks as soon as possible after appointment.

2.8.3. Monitor availability status of augmentees and ensure 100 percent report for wartime contingency support or emergency situations as required. Augmentees will not have projected, approved leave or plan on taking leave (excluding emergency leave) while performing augmentation duty.

Fair share distribution will be determined by subtracting AFI directed/locally approved exemptions and AEF taskings from unit assigned strength E-1 through E-6. See paragraph 5 for locally approved exemptions.

3.2.4.1. If ARB approvals drive substantive recalculations of fair share quotas, 28 FSS/FSM will recalculate quotas and the WAPM will route the new quotas for approval by the ARB within 1 week of the ARB meeting.

4. Augmentation Program Call-up Procedures

4.1. When a supported unit deems it necessary to utilize augmentees, the squadron commander will submit a request through their group commander. The respective group commander will notify the wing commander and/or vice commander, and delegate the execution and oversight of notifications to the WAPM. The requesting unit commander's request should include the number of personnel required, estimated duration, beginning date of augmentee duty, and justification.

4.2. Upon receipt of an augmentation request from a group commander, the WAPM will notify GAMs of the tasking and provide any other necessary information. The GAMs will in turn notify their supporting unit commanders and UACs who will notify the augmentees. GAMs will then provide the requesting unit, and courtesy copy the WAPM, with a listing of all assigned augmentees' names and contact information to fill the tasking.

DEPARTMENT OF THE AIR FORCE
HEADQUARTERS 28TH BOMB WING (AFGSC)
ELLSWORTH AIR FORCE BASE SOUTH DAKOTA

MEMORANDUM FOR Augmentation Review Board

FROM: Your UNIT/CC

SUBJECT: Example of an Augmentation Exemption Request

1. Your Squadron requests 104 position-exemptions from wing details (to include 70 AFI-exempt personnel assigned to Fuels). The squadron has several essential internal processes which require shop closings within the unit to augment. Internal squadron augmentation is required in the following areas:

a. Your 1st Section: Shop conducts 24-hour operations during exercise and/or contingency surges: other less essential processes within the squadron are shut down during surges to support MOBAGS: issues of weapons/bags could exceed 150 per hour at maximum capacity.

b. Your 2nd Section: Shop conducts 24-hour operations during exercise/contingencies to support increased workload of crew transport (busing) and transport of base cargo and personnel to processing area: other less essential processes within the squadron are shut down during surges to support MOBEX. AEF deployments will increase significantly due to USAF drivers augmenting the Army in convoy operations (numbers of passengers to deploy is 10, an increase of five from last year, and there is no increased manpower expected).

c. Your 3rd Section: Two four-person teams necessary for transporting personnel bags and mobility bags at passenger terminal during mobility processing, workload could reach 36 increments per chalk at maximum capacity.

d. Your 4th Section: Element conducts 24/7 operations during exercise and contingencies. If tasked to deploy all kits, maximum participation will be needed by shop and augmentation for approximately 5 days (depending on airlift) and 12 hour shifts to robust and deploy over 105 pallet positions of cargo.
