Risk Assessment

Take the time to determine the risk of harm, embarrassment, inconvenience or unfairness (attachment 6)

Nature of Data Elements. Context of data and potential harm, embarrassment, inconvenience or unfairness that might be generated by exposure to unauthorized individuals.

Likelihood the Information is Accessible and Useable. The likelihood the personally identifiable information (PII) will be used unlawfully by unauthorized individuals.

Broad reach of potential harm. Consider the possible harm associated with the loss or compromise of the PII.

NOTE: Non-PII can become PII whenever additional information is made publicly available. (Para 1.1.2.1.2.)

Need-to-know is the authorized, official need based on assigned duties and responsibilities, to access information that is protected under the Privacy Act. There are three cases when a need-to-know may be established: official business; statutory; and information sharing.

Safeguarding PII

- Ensure personal information which is accessible or viewable through SharePoint or similar web base applications are properly safeguarded to where only individuals who have an official need-to-know to conduct daily operations may gain access or view (para 2.2.1.8.)

- Remove personal information which is accessible through the use of SharePoint or similar web base applications, when no longer needed for daily operations and properly file IAW AF RDS (para 2.2.1.9.)

- Ensure personal information stored on shared drives, folders, and directories are accessible only to individuals whose official duties provide them a valid need-to-know (para 2.2.1.10.)

- Digitally sign and encrypt e-mail messages, or password protect any attachments containing personal information (para 2.2.1.12.)

- All paper documents and printed materials that contain personal information shall be covered with DD Form 2923, Privacy Act Data Cover Sheet, when removed from its approved storage area (para 2.5.4.)

- AFVA33-276, Air Force Privacy Act Label, is mandatory and used for all electronic media (external hard drives, CD's, gov't laptops, etc.) containing PII information (para 6.2.3.1.)

- DO NOT leave personal information in vehicles, unattended workspaces, unsecured file drawers, or in checked baggage (para 2.2.2.8.)

- Promote privacy awareness throughout the organization and reinforce the protection of PII (para 4.7.2)
