SUMMARY OF CHANGES

This revision includes significant changes due to role, responsibility, and organizational adjustments. It also updates references that have been superseded, changes, realigned or rescinded.

1. Mission . The Secretary of the Air Force (SecAF), pursuant to Title 10 United States Code (U.S.C.) Sections (§§) 9013-9016, may establish offices and officials within the Secretariat to assist the Secretary in carrying out his/her responsibilities. As documented by paragraph 4 of Air Force Mission Directive 1, Headquarters Air Force, and this Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive, the Deputy Under Secretary of the Air Force, International Affairs (SAF/IA) is established as part of the Secretariat. The SAF/IA has overall responsibility for Security Cooperation programs and related activities for the Department of the Air Force (DAF). The SecAF retains ultimate responsibility for all policies related to the DAF. Within his/her areas of responsibility, the SAF/IA prepares policies for approval and issues official guidance via official (DAF) publications to ensure implementation of those policies.

2. Organizational Relationships . The SecAF is responsible for, and has all legal authority necessary to conduct, the affairs of the DAF. The Secretariat, the Chief of Staff of the Air Force (CSAF), the Chief of Space Operations (CSO), the Air Staff, and Office of the CSO perform their DAF functions subject to the authority, direction, and control of the SecAF.

2.1. The SAF/IA reports to the SecAF, serves as an agent of the SecAF within assigned policy and program domains, and provides guidance, direction, and oversight for all matters pertaining to the formulation, review, and execution of plans, policies, programs, and budgets within his/her area of responsibility. The SAF/IA is accountable to the SecAF for results achieved within the policy and program domains assigned by this Directive.

2.2. The SAF/IA and the Office of the SAF/IA are part of the Secretariat and as such work in cooperation with other Headquarters Air Force officials and their respective offices, which are responsible, pursuant to Chapters 903, 905, and 908 of Title 10 (10 U.S.C. §§ 9011-9024, §§ 9031-9040, and §§ 9081-9084) for assisting the SecAF, the CSAF, and the CSO in carrying out their responsibilities.

3. Responsibilities . The Deputy Under Secretary of the Air Force, International Affairs is specifically responsible for:

3.1. Overseeing development and execution of Security Cooperation programs through the Foreign Military Sales (FMS) process in accordance with Title 10 and Title 22, United States Code, and any applicable Memorandums of Understanding (MOUs); ensuring compliance with applicable laws and policies including the Arms Export Control Act (AECA), Foreign Assistance Act (FAA), 10 USC Chapter 16 (Security Cooperation), and National Defense Authorization Acts (NDAA). These programs include, but are not limited to, foreign acquisition of U.S. defense equipment by a foreign customer, assisting the development of cooperative project agreements involving international partners, foreign provision of training and education services, international cooperative research and development, defense service information exchanges, technology transfer policy, weapons systems, subsystems, technologies, data export policy, and enhanced end-use monitoring policy.

3.2. Developing DAF-level Security Cooperation policies in support of Combatant Command and DAF objectives related to Security Assistance; ensuring policies are consistent with applicable laws, regulations, and strategies governing Security Cooperation, and advising and supporting Secretariat, United States Air Force (USAF) and United States Space Force (USSF) leaders concerning international activities associated with the FMS process. This includes serving as the DAF principal disclosure authority, responsible for classified military information and controlled unclassified information foreign disclosure policy.

3.3. Building, sustaining, expanding, and guiding international relationships to enable the DAF to explore operational synergies with foreign air, space and cyberspace forces. Advising DAF officials of international perspectives to support operational decision making, and providing leadership political-military analysis of proposed DAF actions which may affect one or more foreign partners.

3.4. Leading air and space-related, HAF level engagements with Allies, partners, and international organizations; identify, create, and maintain partnerships; fill strategic capability gaps; increase resilience; and improve interoperability. Increasing DAF senior leader situational awareness on international space engagements and investments.

3.5. Providing HAF offices with air and space international policy subject matter expertise to support strategic and Joint All-Domain operational decision-making spanning all classifications to include, but not limited to: Development of space Security Cooperation policy and strategy, ensuring a coalition approach across procurement and data sharing, creating DAF positions for international space exports, maintaining U.S. government and international space Security Cooperation awareness through chairing the International Space Cooperation Enterprise (ISCE) working group, and ensuring integration of Ally and partner space architectures/capabilities across the HAF.

3.6. Developing, negotiating, and concluding International Armaments Cooperation (IAC) agreements on behalf of the DAF and its two Military Services, developing policy, and managing IAC programs for which the DoD and foreign governments jointly manage efforts to satisfy common military requirements through cooperation in research, development, test, evaluation, acquisition, and production, in support of air, space, and cyberspace technology and systems.

3.7. Managing Functional and Career Field Manager for the DAF's military Foreign Area Officer (FAO), Political-Military Affairs Strategist (PAS), and civilian International Affairs career fields; serving as the functional lead for DAF participation in the Military Personnel Exchange Program (MPEP), Engineering and Scientist Exchange Program (ESEP), and Administration Professional Exchange Program (APEP); overseeing Air Attaché, Space Attaché, and Security Cooperation Officer (SCO) management; managing the Extended Training Service Specialist (ETSS) program; and overseeing USAF and USSF personnel participation in International Professional Military Education (IPME).

3.8. Managing the foreign air and space attaché corps and acting as the DAF contact point for foreign air and space attachés representing foreign governments in Washington, D.C., and accredited to conduct official business with the DAF.

3.9. Managing foreign personnel participation in aircrew, space crew, technical, and educational training programs, including U.S. Professional Military Education (e.g., Air Command and Staff College, Air War College, National Security Space Institute) and the Aviation Leadership Program (ALP).

3.10. Leading DAF implementation of the DoD Security Cooperation Workforce Development Program and Assessment, Monitoring and Evaluation Programs.

4. Delegations of Authority/Assignments of Responsibility : Attachment 1 lists authorities delegated and responsibilities assigned to the SAF/IA. The authorities delegated to the SAF/IA by this Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive may generally be re-delegated unless re-delegation is expressly prohibited by the attached delegation or superseding law, regulation, or Department of Defense issuance. While the SAF/IA may re-delegate authorities to other DAF officials, he/she will ultimately be responsible to the SecAF for all matters listed in Paragraph 1 of this publication. Any re-delegation of authority/assignment of responsibility made shall not be effective unless it is in writing. Any person re-delegating authority in accordance with this Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive may further restrict or condition the authority being re-delegated.

5. Notifications to Congress : No re-delegation of authority/assignment of responsibility under this Headquarters Air Force Mission Directive below the level of a Deputy Assistant Secretary or three-letter/digit office shall include authority to provide notifications or reports to Congress.
